On 5/19/60, SA W. HARLAN BROWN received a type-written report from DL-6-S; dated 5/16/60. This report has been serialized as 134-1A-519.

Informant determined there was a regular meeting of the Dallas CP at the home of AUGUSTIN ESTRADA. Those present were AUGUSTIN ESTRADA, BILL LOWERY, ROTH LOWERY and JOE LANDIN.

Informant further determined that BILL LOWERY reported on a confidential letter he had received from Attorney OTTO MULLINAX. The letter stressed the fact that the attorney and other interested parties were going to support an independent candidate to run for Congress. This could be done by petition and the name of 500 voters that did not vote in the primaries. The candidate that was to be supported by these people had to be a liberal, accepting the theory of integration however gradual; be for labor unions, etc. The candidate was WEBSTER, a law professor at SMU. MULLINAX and others were to form a committee to support their candidate and LOWERY as chairman of the American GI Forum was invited to attend the initial meetings which were closed meetings. After these meetings, public meetings were to be held.
