[ANDREW TULLY] to [YURIS I. VOLSKIY]. TULLY stated he is a journalist and author (phone # 667-3318). Is writing a book about Soviet victory in Berlin in 1945. Just returned from Germany where he interviewed German soldiers and civilians who were involved in the battle. Now desires to obtain Soviet literature relating to same so he can present Soviet point of view in his book as well as German view. Mentioned he has tried to obtain visa to visit USSR to interview Soviets re battle without success. Also has previously tried to secure Russian cooperation in getting literature re battle without success. [VOLSKIY] said he was not aware of [TULLY'S] problems in this regard and will look into matter. [TULLY] asked for name of man in charge of press dept. [VOL] stated name was [NIKOLAY V. DYAKONOV] who will be in Washington in two days. TULLY indicated the last book he wrote was about the CIA. ajs
