On 12/14/61, Jesus Rasco Bermudez (134-10747) furnished information concerning a two-faction split which occurred within the MDC, namely, the split of the group headed by Laureano Batista Falla and that of Jose Fernandez Badue, aka "Lucas." Rasco stated that "Lucas" continued as the MDC "representative" to the Revolutionary Council at Miami, but that "Lucas" didn't actually represent the MDC. Rasco stated that his brother, Jose Ignacio Rasco, a leader in the Batista group of the MDC, arrived back in Miami about 11/29/61, after having been on a speaking tour in Latin America. ✓ Batista

(S) On 3/8/62, MM 724-S advised that Laureano Batista Falla conceived the idea to demonstrate peacefully during the visit of President John F. Kennedy in the Miami area, on 3/10/62. As a result of orders issued by the local law enforcement agencies in the Miami area, all demonstrations during the visit of President Kennedy were called off. On 3/9/62, a group of Cuban exiles, members of the MDC and the 30th of November Revolutionary Movement (NRM) (105-92196) agreed to commence a peaceful demonstration in the form of a hunger strike in Bay Front Park, Miami.

Carlos Rodrigue Quesada, General Coordinator of the NRM, Miami, advised that his movement participated in this hunger strike which was held during March 10 and 12, 1962. He stated that the strike was organized and staged by Batista, representing a splinter group of the MDC. He stated that Batista called on Cuban refugees in Miami to join in the strike to protect the lack of activity on the part of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, Miami, and the failure of the US Government to furnish the Cuban refugees with means of overthrowing the communist regime in Cuba.

On 5/10/62, Mrs. Ulda Eldred, section secretary, Registration Section, Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, advised that a registration, in accordance with the Foreign Agents Registration Act, had been filed by MDC. A check of this registration by the Bureau revealed this was Registration number 1498, filed on 12/7/61, by the MDC, whose principal office was at 1732 N.W. 7th Street, Miami. The person in charge of this office was Laureano Batista Falla, President of the organization.

WFO Source of Information, Maria Amelia Fernandez, advised that, on 6/17/62, following a series of meetings of anti-Castro Cubans in the Washington, D.C. area, a nonpolitical, unity document was signed by a number of persons as delegates of several anti-Castro organizations. Among those signing was Rafael Madan, 6506 Payne Street, Falls Church, Va., as a delegate of Democrata Cristiana. On 7/6/62, Fernandez advised that she believed Democrata Cristiana, of which Madan was a delegate, was identical with the MDC, with headquarters in Miami. Fernandez did not know whether Madan was a delegate of the faction under the leadership of Jose Fernandez Bodue, which was a member of the Consejo Revolucionario De Cuba (CRC) (105-107224) or of the faction led by Batista, which was not a member of CRC.

On 10/10/64, Enrique Abascal, as a representative of the MDC, attended a meeting of the Democratic Revolutionary Alliance (105-134875) held in NYC. He remained at the meeting until 10:00 p.m., when he left to meet Laureano Batista Falla. (CIA) (S) (U) ~~105-134875-4 p.2~~ ~~(14,32)~~ ~~CIA file 4110787~~ ~~SP-7 mac 1/88~~ ~~7/14/79~~

In December 1964, Henri Clermont (97-4922) a Haitian exile leader from NYC, arrived in Miami and established a training camp for Haitian exiles in the Florida Everglades. While in the Miami area, Clermont had several meetings with Laureano Batista Falla, an MDC leader. They arrived at a working agreement, but Batista said that he would not become involved in a shooting conflict with Haiti. Batista stated that he had a boat on a base in the DR which could be used to smuggle Haitians in and out of the DR, for Clermont. (S) (U)

Later this training camp was disbanded and, on 12/23/64, Clermont and his small group of exiles returned to NYC. (S) (U)
