Since referenced New Orleans letter and letterhead memorandum to the Bureau, dated 5/2/63, the New Orleans Council for Peaceful Alternatives (NOCPA) gathered at Audubon Park, on 5/5/63, for the purpose of parading from Audubon Park to Jackson Avenue along St. Charles Avenue. When it was pointed out to the Chairman by the NOPD that their permit to parade was for 5/3/63, when none of their members appeared, the group disbanded. Present at the time at Audubon Park were a number of "right wing or conservative group" persons who were going to parade in opposition to the NOCPA. No incidents happened at this time.

The NOCPA obtained a permit to parade on 5/19/63 from Pine Street to Jackson Avenue on St. Charles Avenue. They so paraded. The group consisted of about 40 persons counting children and drew little attention. A group of opposition persons tried to parade, but were denied the privilege since they had no permit. This group then drove a few blocks ahead of the parade, got out and stood on a corner with their signs and an American Flag until the NOCPA group passed. This procedure was repeated to the end of the parade.
