SUBJECT: Edward F. Weinheimer - Perjury

1. In the statement to the Bureau on September 28, 1959, Mrs. Madeline Perlaky apparently did not recall typing three envelopes on one occasion to Weinheimer at Des Moines, in 1957. Since these letters were mailed in August, it is possible that Mrs. Perlaky may have been on vacation at the time the envelopes were prepared; therefore, one of the other girls in the office may have actually typed the questioned envelopes. In that connection, it is known that the following girls were employed at Exhibitors Service during August and September of 1957:

(a) Mrs. Joann Jurist, 812 Park Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey. She terminated her employment in about February 1958. It has been reported that she may visit her mother on December 23, 1959 to spend the Christmas holidays. Her mother's name is Mrs. Taravella and she resides at 522 Woodward Avenue, McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania.

(b) Mildred Baer, who is still employed by Exhibitors Service.

(c) Mrs. Judy Powers, 729 Broadway, McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania. She left Exhibitors Service about February 1958.

It is requested that the aforementioned individuals be interviewed to ascertain whether any of them can provide any pertinent information concerning the preparation and mailing of the three envelopes to Weinheimer in Des Moines, and the two envelopes to Detroit in 1957. If any of the foregoing individuals recall preparing such envelopes, it is suggested that they be interrogated regarding any knowledge or information they may have as to whether currency was placed in the envelopes by Callahan. (It is understood that the girls occupied an office adjacent to Callahan's and may have been in a position, because of some window arrangement in the partition wall, to observe what Callahan may have done with the envelopes).

2. Since the three envelopes to Des Moines, and the two envelopes to Detroit were sent by registered mail to Weinheimer, the return receipts would have been forwarded to Exhibitors Service. It is requested in this connection, that the Bureau determine the present whereabouts of the return receipts.

3. It is our information that it is the practice of Exhibitors Service to fasten return receipts to the copies of the corresponding correspondence. Since the investigation in instant case has established that the questioned envelopes were sent to Weinheimer without any covering letter, it is requested that the Bureau determine how these return receipts were filed with the records of Exhibitors Service and what, if any, explanation is offered for such manner of filing. Of possible interest to this phase of the investigation, it is noted that the postal authorities do not make direct deliveries to the premises of Exhibitors Service; instead, one of the employees, usually the aforementioned Mildred Baer, picks up the mail every morning at the local post office. It is possible, therefore, that this individual may have knowledge as to the receipt and filing procedures relative to the return receipts.

4. It is understood that all correspondence between Weinheimer and Exhibitors Service are maintained in one file marked "Weinheimer." It is requested that this correspondence file be reviewed and the dates and contents of the correspondence be noted. Also, note should be made of all correspondence to which return receipts may be attached. Further, note should be made of return receipts for which there is no corresponding correspondence. These latter receipts may possibly tie in with the envelopes in question. It would be desirable to determine who would be in a position to testify, if necessary, concerning the custom and practice of filing correspondence. This individual may possibly furnish some circumstantial corroborative proof that no letter was enclosed in the envelopes marked to Weinheimer.

5. It is understood that Callahan corresponded by mail and telegram with James R. Hoffa during the period of Weinheimer's employment. Specifically, it has been reported that a few days before Christmas of 1957, Callahan sent a telegram to Hoffa. It is requested that all correspondence, memoranda and telegrams between Hoffa and Exhibitors Service be reviewed and any pertinent information noted.

Should Exhibitors Service decline to make available the material referred to in items 4 and 5, it is requested that the Criminal Division be notified promptly in order that a grand jury subpoena may be issued compelling the production of these records.

The investigations requested in this memorandum are made in connection with the preparation of instant case for trial which is scheduled to begin on January 11, 1960.
