PG 601-C, who in the past has given reliable information, was interviewed at Poli Restaurant in Squirrel Hill, Pittsburgh, Pa., at which time he advised SA JOHN S. PORTELLA and SA DAMON W. PITCHER that late on the evening of 9/16/63 and early AM, 9/17/63, JACK ARMAND was with JACK DONAGHUE, "LITTLE CHECK" DONALD FLEX, and "BIG CHICK" GEORGE VIDINOVIC at Frankies Bar on Grant Street. ARMAND had with him a white female approximately 21, red hair, who answered to the name ROBERTA. During the conversation, ARMAND made reference to the fact that he had met with WEINHEIMER who came into Pittsburgh from New York. WEINHEIMER was involved in the BARNEY BAKER - Exhibitors Service case that took place several years ago. Informant stated that on 9/16/63, at about 11:00 P.M., ARMAND excused himself and said he had to go to the Carlton House to meet someone, but ARMAND could not say who he was going to meet, but suggested that he was probably going to meet WEINHEIMER again.

Informant said that at about 1:30 A.M., on 9/17/63, JACK ARMAND had a fist fight with one of the patrons at Frankies who made an improper remark to his girl friend ROBERTA.

Informant is acquainted with JACK DONAGHUE who has an interest in the Saints and Sinners Cocktail Lounge on Route 51 and made the remark to DONAGHUE about the bad company he was keeping, referring to ARMAND. DONAGHUE replied to informant that he was going to make "a book" with ARMAND, and that was all he was interested in. Informant said DONAGHUE did not enlarge on this.

Informant said when he left the group, ARMAND indicated he was going to leave Pittsburgh sometime during 9/17/63, and was going to take ROBERTA with him.
