SUBJECT: ALAN NORRIS GOBERMAN

Handwritten: Gambling Investigations - [initials]

On 8/26/71, GUIDO FENZI, Administrative Officer, American Consulate General, Willemstad, Curacao, Netherlands Antilles, advised that he had recently completed a survey of the gambling casinos operating in the Netherlands Antilles. He reported that there are currently ten gambling casinos in the Netherlands Antilles, all of which are operated by United States citizens.

FENZI furnished the following information regarding the Sint Maarten Isle Hotel, St. Maarten, Netherlands Antilles:

The gambling casino's operator of record is ALAN NORRIS GOBERMAN, who was born on 6/28/08, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and who maintains his residence in the United States at 12 North School Lane, Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Until recently, GOBERMAN was also managing director of the hotel, of which he owns a major interest. There are indications that GOBERMAN has been, or will soon be, succeeded as manager by EDWARD W. LEVREY.

Manager of the gambling casino is MONROE GLAZER, who was born in 1916 at Minneapolis, Minnesota, and who maintains a residence in the United States at the Imperial Apartments, Apartment 206, 350 Desert Inn Road, Las Vegas, Nevada.

The following are listed as Assistant Managers:

ERNEST ELWOOD LA VERNE, of 3501 Maryland Parkway, Apartment 94, Las Vegas, Nevada;

BOYD NUTTER of 252 Tropicana Avenue, Apartment 66, Las Vegas, Nevada.

FENZI related there was no specific indication that GOBERMAN and his associates have any connection with organized crime in the United States. The information is, however, being brought to the Bureau's attention as of possible interest under the Criminal Intelligence Program.
