This casino continues to be operated by individuals previously identified to the Bureau. JAKE LANSKY, Miami Office top hoodlum, oversees the operations of the casino in the Hotel Nacional and is assisted by SAM TUCKER who has an interest in the casino. (RM)

On February 5, 1958, PCI GOFFREDO CELLINI (conceal), who is employed in the casino at the Hotel Nacional, advised that GEORGE SADLOW, an old associate of MEYER and JAKE LANSKY, was in Havana staying at the Hotel Nacional and frequenting
the casino there. On February 27, 1958, PCI CELLINI advised that JAKE LANSKY and SAM TUCKER had been visited on that date
by General MANUEL BENITEZ VALDES, a Cuban Senator and former Chief of Police in Cuba. General BENITEZ indicated that he was highly indignant over the treatment MEYER LANSKY had been receiving, and he considers MEYER LANSKY to be a good friend and one of the few gentlemen in the gambling profession. He indicated he would do everything in his power to put his support behind a movement to return MEYER LANSKY to Cuba. He stated he intended to publish an open letter in both the English and Spanish language newspapers in Havana in the immediate future indicating his support for MEYER LANSKY. (RM)

Source informed that immediately prior to the conversation with JAKE LANSKY and SAM TUCKER, BENITEZ indicated he had been in conference concerning the matter with SANTO TRAFFICANTE and JOE SILESI, wa. Joe Rivers. (u)

The English language and Spanish language newspapers of Sunday, March 2, 1958, carried an open letter from General BENITEZ supporting the return of MEYER LANSKY to Cuba.

Hotel Havana Riviera Casino (u)

On January 23, 1958, Havana-4 advised that DINO CELLINI, who acts as a floor boss at the Hotel Havana Riviera casino, continues to operate a school for Cuban dealers. Source said the school is located in the Ambar Motors Building at 23rd and Infanta Streets, Havana, Telephone U-8781. (u) Cuba

On February 4, 1958, TIM HALL, Reservations Manager, Hotel Nacional, confidentially advised that HARRY and BEN SMITH, part-owners of the Hotel Havana Riviera and believed to be of Jewish extraction, are two brothers who had made a great deal of money during prohibition days running a number of "drinking joints" in Toronto, Canada, which were almost continually filled with Americans who came across from the United States to get drunk. He informed that they owned the Prince George Hotel in Toronto. He said he had heard that they had made such a great deal of money in Canada that they desired to hide the fact by investing some of it in the Havana Riviera. (u) Cuba

On March 10, 1958, Assistant Manager NEIL WALSH, Hotel Havana Riviera, confidentially advised that he had ascertained from TOMMY GUINAN, an employee in the casino at the Havana Riviera and brother of the famous Tex Guinan, that the following individuals have some "points" in the Havana Riviera casino: (u)

- MEYER LANSKY
- HARRY SMITH
- BEN SMITH
- "DUSTY" PETERS
- EDWARD LEVINSON
- IRVING "NIGGIE" DEVINE
- EDDIE TORREO
- BEN LEVINE
- "RUDY" KORNOCK
- DINO CELLINI
