ADMINISTRATIVE

JOHN FELICE can give the orders to PRESSER. Although his salary is not known to the informant, he feels certain that PRESSER does not make the big money that many people attribute to him. PRESSER does not have any income outside of his union money as far as he knows.

His wife, FAYE PRESSER, was just in Mt. Sinai Hospital several weeks ago for a rest. She goes into the hospital about twice a year for this purpose. She still is a big gambler, goes big for the horses and just as big for cards. She has been nabbed a couple times while participating in a couple of "RED" MASON's poker games, where other women players took part in these games set up by MASON.

ALLEN FRIEDMAN, FAYE's brother, does some gambling, but not like his brother, HARRY, who is a real "horse degenerate." He follows the horses all over the country. He does not attend the local area tracks very much. He has said that around here he could fix one jockey, but then there are other guys who would be fixing two or three jockeys in the same race. Informant believed that he has been at the California tracks during this past winter and may still be out there. TOBY PRESSER, HARRY FRIEDMAN's daughter, who with her brother were adopted by the PRESSERS, will be getting married shortly to a Jewish fellow who drives a truck on some type of business route.

JACKIE PRESSER is in the vending machine business with an uncle, MILTON PRESSER. They are doing well financially. This is one of the few occasions on which WILLIAM PRESSER has allowed anybody to use his name and union connection. He has allowed JACKIE to mention in his vending machine contacts that his father heads up the Teamsters in this area, and would like to see his son do well in the business.

On April 15, 1960, CV-428-C furnished the following information to SAs W. CLARK FULLER and ROBERT L. SCHWARTZ:

LOUIS "BABE" TRISCARO, DOMINIC BARTONE, WILLIAM PRESSER, an unidentified male from Cincinnati, Ohio, and an unidentified male from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, have reportedly been running guns and ammunition over the past five years. Source advised that he had heard that this group had gotten some of these guns as a result of burglaries of various
