and Miami letter to Director, FBI, 4/10/58.

Referenced letter dated 3/10/55 sets forth information that on 2/4/58, subject was seen in a 1957 Cadillac, bearing 1958 Illinois license 701234, together with CAEL FLORITO, FBI Number 3110979, ROMEO CIVETTA, FBI Number 1622562, and WILLIE DENTAMARG, FBI Number 394200A. It will be noted that above license number was determined to have been issued to A. URSO, 1234 S. Hamilton, Elmhurst, Illinois. Records of the Chicago Police Department, Chicago Credit Bureau and records of the Chicago Office fail to reflect any information identifiable with A. URSO. Further, it was noted that A. URSO is not listed in the current Chicago or Chicago suburban telephone directories and no record could be located concerning the address 1234 S. Hamilton.

[Handwritten word: informant]

CG 6215 - C : 7/7/58, advised that during the early part of June, 1958, subject approached BEN EPSTEIN, Chicago bookmaker, with an offer to set up EPSTEIN as a head of an office to be used as a central point for sports betting in the Chicago area. As part of this deal EPSTEIN would be required to invest a considerable sum of money which EPSTEIN would be able to do. Informant stated that EPSTEIN did not accept this proposition, but indicated to YARAS that he intended to get out of the gambling business entirely and, in fact, planned to go into a legitimate produce business operated by his brother-in-law.

[Handwritten letter: D]

CG 6215 - C continued that he has heard that YARAS has purchased a considerable amount of "hot" jewelry within the past months. He stated

It will be noted that much of the information set forth hereinafter is known to the Bureau and to the Miami Division; however, it is being set forth in order that the Bureau and the Miami Division may be advised of all information contained in the records of the Chicago Office concerning captioned subject.

Investigation in the case entitled "Unknown Subjects; Valentine Federal Savings and Loan Association, Cicero, Illinois, 5-21-45" reflects that SA MARK M. MC SHURLEY contacted Sgt. EDWARD DOOLEY, Cartage Detail, Chicago Police Department, who suggested that DAVE YARAS, Chicago B of I Number C-59530, might be a possible suspect in this case.

5/21/46. He immediately identified this photograph as being that of DAVE YARAS of Chicago, Illinois.

The informant advised that the father of the YARAS boys, whose first name NYC-165 could not recall, was so far as he knows a law-abiding citizen who was employed as an iceman. Informant

DAVE YARAS is reputedly a "bad boy" and is a member of the FISCHEETTI Boys mob. DAVE YARAS is particularly friendly with both JOSEPE DAVID ~~WELCHER~~ and MEYER GORDON, but he is not in any way related to either of them. llk

Bureau letter to Chicago, dated 8/27/46, reflects that the following information was furnished by PAUL ROLAND JONES in the course of interviews with Sources C and D (not further identified) dating from 7/27/46, through 8/3/46.

At this time the Southwest Amusement Company in Dallas, Texas was owned by SAM YARAS and SAM's brother, DAVE YARAS. SAM YARAS lost $150,000 in crap games. DAVE YARAS, upon learning of his brother's heavy losses, immediately called on him for an accounting. SAM YARAS then approached BUD SATCHER and offered SATCHER one half interest in the company, but later, due to difficulties with SAM YARAS, SATCHER sold his interest to MARCUS LIPSKY.

Dallas report, dated 8/5/46, by SA ALTON M. BRYANT, captioned "JAMES WEINBERG, was., Etal," reflects the following:

The following individuals have not been reported as active associates of the WEINBERG group, but informants of the Dallas Division indicated that they have associated with WEINBERG, PAUL FABRICOLA, and MARTIN COCHS in Dallas, but the YARAS is mentioned in regard to the RAGEN killing.

Police confidential informants advised that inquiries made by them as to the location of DAVE YARAS failed to reveal any definite information as to where he might be located.

On 3/12/47, WILLIAM E. BLOCK, 36, an ex-convict, was arrested by police officers at 3613 Roosevelt Road, Chicago. This is the location of a book which was being operated by DAVE YARAS, another ex-convict.

VIRGIL PETERSON of the Chicago Crime Commission advised that the handbooks in the 24th Ward, stronghold of JAKE ARVEY and ART X. ERD, are reopening. The 24th Ward is the stronghold of DAVE YARAS, WILLIAM E. BLOCK and LEONARD PATRICK, all of whom were named as suspects in the RAGEN shooting.

Chicago letter to New York, dated 4/22/47, reflects the following:

CG 5658 advised the Chicago Office that MEYER GORDON received a long distance telephone call from Kansas City, at which time an individual, identified only as MYRTLE, requested financial assistance from MEYER GORDON to facilitate the departure of one TOOKIE from the United States into Canada. MEYER GORDON explained that he could not render any financial assistance to MYRTLE due to his own financial problems. MYRTLE then requested information as to the possibility of one DAVID (possibly referring to DAVID YARAS) helping. MEYER asked MYRTLE if she had been reading the papers and, when advised that she had not, he informed her that DAVID was away on account of some scandal here. It is believed that GORDON was referring to the newspapers publicity surrounding the disappearance of DAVID YARAS at the time the Chicago Police Department was investigating new developments surrounding the killing of JAMES M. RAGEN, reportedly by the Capone Syndicate in Chicago.

Informants

CG-5653 confirmed in part the information furnished by CG-5658 which information is reflected in the contact made with JOSEPH WELCHER by an unknown individual identified only as "PAT" on 3/19/47. On this occasion PAT made the statement to WELCHER, "Did you see the papers - that little guy they are looking for is your cousin over west." Subsequent information reflects that WELCHER became extremely excited over this particular contact and appeared to be concerned about his own welfare in the matter. It is therefore possible that DAVID YARAS may be a cousin of JOSEPH WELCHER.

New York report dated 5/27/47 by SA J. GORDON SEANLEK reflects the following information:

In accordance with the request from the Chicago Office, a photograph of DAVID YARAS, Chicago PD Number B11360, was exhibited to NY 105-1165 and he immediately identified this photograph as being that of DAVE YARAS of Chicago, Illinois. He has known YARAS since he was a youngster, as they were neighbors of his in the vicinity of Leavitt and Division Streets, Chicago, Illinois. DAVID YARAS has a brother named SAMUEL, who is probably in Dallas, Texas. He thinks that both DAVID and SAMUEL YARAS are interested in slot machines, and DAVID is supposedly a member of the FISCHETTI Mob in Chicago. He is also friendly with JOSEPH DAVID WELCHER and MEYER GORDON.

The "Chicago American" dated 10/14/47, contained an article captioned "Held as Ragen Witness Killer."

The article reflected that THOMAS (Little Bud) SINCLAIR, 3808 S. State Street, was to be booked on a murder charge, police said, for the killing of JOHN WHITE, 22, on 6/14/47. WHITE was one of the three men who identified WILLIAM BLOCK, LEONARD PATRICK and DAVID YARAS as slayers of JAMES M. RAGEN.

CG 87-8462

Chicago report dated 7/29/47, by SA E.J. CONNELLY, Assistant Director, contains the following information:

Confidential informants of the Chicago Office have reported that DAVE YARAS has been spending some time at Liberal Jewelers where JOSEPH WELCHER is employed. It has not been determined whether YARAS is interested in WELCHER or whether he meets JOE FISCHETTI in the Jewelers, which would account for his appearance there on several occasions.

Informant
CG-5654 According to Confidential Informant DAVE YARAS spent some time going to the Liberal Jewelers on 6/30/47. While there, YARAS contacted an individual known only as PETE at the Devonshire Hotel. In this contact YARAS requested to know why PETE had not paid MEYER GORDON the $2,500 that he owed. PETE stated he had various reasons for not paying this account, but refused to discuss it at that time.

It should be noted DAVE YARAS has been present in the Liberal Jewelers on several occasions when JOE FISCHETTI was there. It has not been determined whether this was merely a coincident or whether YARAS is actually part of the FISCHETTI mob.

ALAN ABE SPITZ advised that he is personally acquainted with individuals whom are known to the Chicago Office to be police characters and/or hold high places in the Chicago criminal syndicate. Among these is DAVE YARAS.

SPITZ was interviewed on 7/23/47 by SAs JOHN P. GLENVILLE and JOHN R. PAUL and he advised that he first became employed for MEYER GORDON in the Liberal Loan Bank at 21 E. Adams Street on 9/20/43 and was employed at the time the Treasury Department closed doors of that store for income tax violations on 6/5/46.
