currently engaged in revolutionary activities, Miami does not believe that expenditure of additional investigative time in this matter is warranted, and it is closed.

Newark was advised by separate communication to discontinue investigation, as Miami was submitting closing report. One copy of this report is being furnished to the Newark Office in view of that office's interest in the subject, and one copy is being furnished to the New York Office in view of subject's current location in territory covered by that office.

FD 302 containing the interview of ENRIQUE GARCIA, JR. appears in New York report of May 9, 1960.
