Re Miami letter to Bureau, 10-29-69.

(u) On 12-9-69, CARLOS ZARRAGA MARTINEZ, Key Source Cuban, advised that the photographs of the Unsubs were reviewed by himself and his wife and several friends. They identified one of the individuals in the photographs as being the wife of LAUREANO BATISTA FALLA.

ZARRAGA said he and his friends were unable to identify the remaining Unsubs in the photographs.

MM 635-S, MM 492-S, MM 1115-S and MM 815-S were shown the photographs with negative results.

SA ROBERT JAMES DWYER, who has met BATISTA's wife on two or three different occasions during interviews with BATISTA, also feels she is identical with the Unsub in the photographs wearing the white jacket and having long hair.

ZARRAGA thinks that Mrs. BATISTA probably delivered or received something for her husband at the Czech Embassy, and it was probably a travel permit for someone to leave Cuba.
