In one instance, a CHARLES GENARD was ordered to refrain from robbing local bookmakers, as too much heat was being placed on the Italians. On two occasions, MARCELLO ordered the informant to instruct two local gambers to pay a gambling debt which they had previously refused to pay and upon receipt of this command, the debt was paid.

WILLIAM NETTERVILLE | a

LV238-PC, who was in New Orleans on 3/21/66, advised that NETTERVILLE had been approached by ROBERT ANDERSON, former Secretary of the Treasury, whose offices are currently at the Number 1 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City, concerning a proposition relative to purchase of gold. NETTERVILLE, according to the informant, advised him that various gold mining companies in the United States have been siphoning off gold which had been mined and only reporting a certain portion of the gold actually recovered from the earth. This gold has allegedly come under the control of several unknown individuals throughout the country. According to the informant, NETTERVILLE stated that a attorney for any principal who has some of this gold allegedly can meet with an attorney in Washington, D.C. who is associated with the former law firm of U.S. Supreme Court Justice ABE FORTAS. The attorney, after due consultation with the Washington attorney and satisfied that his client will be protected; will then divulge the identity of his principal and according to the informant, a letter will be received from the White House within 24 hours which waives the Certificate of Origin on the gold and grants immunity to the principal and all others connected with the gold transaction. gold is sold back to the U.S. Government for $28 an ounce with a 2 per cent commission to the agent, and at the time of the transaction, 10 per cent of the price is retained for income tax purposes.

known financier, and under no circumstances should this information be revealed outside the Bureau.

HUGHES allegedly advised the informant that major business interests in the United States, such as Hughes Tools, I. E. DuPont, U. S. Steel, and Boeing Aircraft, are completely fed up with the petty racketeering and shakedowns that exist throughout the State of Louisiana. Because of this dissatisfaction on the part of these major businesses, HUGHES allegedly told the informant that the security resources of several of these companies have banded together during the past several months 100 and conducted extensive investigations concerning leading political figures and industrialists. Specifically mentioned were Governor JOHN J. MC KEITHEN, Mayor VICTOR SCHIRO, and WILSON ABRAHAM, Baton Rouge contractor. Informant stated that he was told that these investigations resulted in Governor MC KEITHEN's being observed and photographed entering a bank in Mexico City with an individual identified as (FNU) PERRY, a Houston, Texas contractor, who allegedly flew MC KEITHEN in his private aircraft to Mexico, with "briefcases full of money". Informant advised that Mayor SCHIRO has also been observed and photographed visiting a safety deposit box in the vault of the National American Bank at New Orleans.
