Date _____

On March 16, 1959, Mr. JOHN KERNAN, Manager, Sea Gull Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida, advised that he is personally acquainted with ~~SAMMY~~ MANNARINO of New Kensington, Pennsylvania; that MANNARINO has in the past been a frequent guest of the Sea Gull and that MANNARINO usually registers under a fictitious name. ~~SAMUEL~~ MANNARINO

Mr. KERNAN produced his registration card file, examination of which reflected registration card number 1908, in the name of "Mr. ~~SAL~~MANN," Brooklyn, New York, no street address given. MANN registered in room 409, at 1:36 A.M., on October 24, 1958, and departed on November 7, 1958. The card reflected that MANN came to the hotel off the street, apparently without previous reservation. The registration card bore a time stamp reflecting the actual time of arrival at the hotel was 1:36 A.M., on October 25, 1958, and the actual time of departure was 9:07 P.M., November 7, 1958.

Mr. KERNAN, upon examining this card, stated that although he felt reasonably certain that this was the registration card of MANNARINO, he could not testify to this effect as he was not present at the time this party checked in and checked out.

The card bore the initials of JAMES T. YERBY, Night Auditor, as the clerk who checked MANN in.

Mr. KERNAN, after examining the registration card, said that the party was checked out by WERNER MITCHELL, who is no longer employed at the Sea Gull Hotel. He said that MITCHELL was married to a daughter of BEN CHASIN, President of the Sea Gull Hotel, has since separated from this woman, and now reportedly lives in Chicago.

Mr. KERNAN was unable to recall having received a long distance telephone call from SAMMY MANNARINO or WILLIAM SAMS from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in October, 1958, shortly prior to registration of each.
