Re: PARTIDO DE LA REVOLUCION (PR)
(PARTY OF THE REVOLUTION)
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

The Partido de la Revolucion (PR) is the name which was to be given to a new organization which Cuban exiles in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and Miami, Florida, have been attempting to develop. As a means of advancing this development, these exiles first formed Cuban Centers for Political Studies in San Juan and Miami.

On June 14, 1966, MM T-1, a Cuban exile who was formerly a high-ranking officer in a leading anti-CASTRO organization, advised that a meeting of the Cuban exiles connected with the Cuban Center for Political Studies was held at the home of MAX LEENRICK in Miami on June 10, 1966. At this meeting, it was announced that a meeting of members of the Cuban Center for Political Studies from San Juan and New York would be held in Miami on the Fourth of July weekend, at which time definite arrangements would be made for the Congress of revolutionary organizations to be held in Miami in August, 1966. At this Congress, the PR would be organized. (u)

On July 5, 1966, MM T-1 reported that a meeting was held at the home of JOAQUIN GODOY, Coral Gables, Florida, on July 1, 1966, at which time the plans for the Congress of anti-CASTRO revolutionary groups was discussed. It was generally agreed that all anti-CASTRO groups except the supporters of former Cuban President FULGENCIO BATISTA would be invited to this Congress. The group was particularly interested in obtaining the support and participation of former followers of FIDEL CASTRO who had defected. (u)

On July 3 and 4, 1966, meetings were held in Miami with various representatives of other anti-CASTRO organizations which would be invited to the Congress. During these meetings, the possibility of holding the Congress on or about July 26, 1966, was discussed and agreed upon.
