ADMINISTRATIVE

The investigative period of this report overlaps investigative period of previous report due to the fact that WFO was not in receipt of the results of investigation of auxiliary offices at the time the last report was prepared.

Through established liaison, local law enforcement agencies have been made aware of all pertinent facts contained in this report.

It is noted that WFO is coordinating this investigation with its investigation in WFO bombing cases captioned, "UNSUB; EXPLOSION AT THE SOVIET AIRLINES OFFICE, AEROFLOT, 1101 16TH STREET, N.W., WASHINGTON, D.C., 5/10/75" (WFO 174-580), (Bufile 185-517) and "UNSUB; BOMBING OF EMBASSY OF COSTA RICA, WASHINGTON, D.C., 7/18/75" (185-292) in view of the similarities of the three bombings.

Appropriate leads regarding investigation at Miami set forth in W0 report dated 7/28/75.

Sources who were contacted in the Newark metropolitan area who are familiar with matters involving the Cuban community were: NK 5173-S, NK 5775-PSI, NK 6030-PSI, NK 2622-S, and NK 26707S.

The FBI Laboratory has determined that two "Engorsele" pocketwatches recovered at the bombing of the Costa Rican Embassy are identical to the pocketwatches used at the captioned bombing and at the bombing of the Soviet Airlines Office. Appropriate leads have been sent to New York to contact U.S. Customs, John F. Kennedy International Airport and the Mohertus Trading Company, 45 West 38th Street, New York, to determine the importation and distribution of "Engorsele" watches.

Referenced Miami tel, 7/23/75, noted that MM 1337-S furnished information from ORLANDO "BEBOY ACOSTA, a leader of the National Liberation Front of Cuba (FLNC), that he is quite certain that the bomb blast at the Costa Rican Embassy on 7/18/75, was the work of ABDALA, and that (FND) CALSON (phonetic) was one of the persons directly involved in the bombing (V)

It is noted that WFO indices contain reference to one FERNANDO CALZON ALVAREZ, aka FRANK CALZON, Cuban national, born 1/29/44, who is reportedly an executive officer of the Agrupacion Abdala Estudiantil (ABDALA) in the WDC area. CALZON was interviewed by WFO Agents on 8/5/75, results of which are set forth.
