COVER PAGE

Because of the status in the rackets of all three men, the Newark Office was requested to ascertain the whereabouts of these individuals and possible acquaintances met while in the Atlantic City area. Subsequent investigation by the Newark Division failed to reflect any indication that LA ROCCA and his associates were staying in any of the motels close to the boardwalk at Atlantic City.

The Miami Division, after conducting weekly checks of the LA ROCCA residence, at 2073 South East 15th Court, Bel Aire, Fla., indicated to the Pittsburgh Division on September 23, 1964, that this residence was not occupied during the entire summer of 1964.

On September 17, 1964, PG T-4 furnished the following information:

LA ROCCA remains in the Pittsburgh-Ingomar, Pa., area and has not engaged in any extensive travel since his return home from Bel Aire, Fla., during the second week of April, 1964. His former daughter-in-law, PATRICIA, is again using the name PAT FESSLER and has been employed for a little more than a year at Zayres Department Store on McKnight Road as a salesgirl. She works from 9 AM to 6 PM daily. The FESSLERS see the elder LA ROCCAs quite often and allow the LA ROCCAs to take care of PAT'S baby almost every weekend. Both Mr. and Mrs. LA ROCCA are extremely proud of their only grandson and see to it that he wants for nothing.

PAT FESSLER is very unhappy with her present circumstances but can do nothing to elevate them or obtain greater financial security. She has heard that her former husband, the adopted son of SEBASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCA, has remarried against the wishes of his parents and is now working instead of attending the University of Miami, where he had been accepted for the semester beginning in September, 1964. His plans to further his education may have undergone a change, much to his father's disgust. This is a very recent rumor and could not be verified by other sources available to this informant. The LA ROCCAs are very OTHER 4 close-mouthed about personal affairs and do not even mention young JOHN when they visit the [redacted] residence to pick up their grandson.
