PG T-6 has advised that he has recently heard rumors among Pittsburgh area gamblers to the effect that ARTHUR D. "ARCHIE" NELSON wants to sell the Phoenix Motel at Monroeville, Pa., for an unknown reason. He said the heart attack suffered by NELSON during May, 1961, is believed by these gamblers to have been staged to prepare a plausible reason for him to sell a profitable business. They are convinced the alleged heart attack is a "phony." According to the informant, the same gamblers have stated that they understand that "the boys from New Kensington" are interested in buying the Phoenix Motel. He believes this reference can only mean that the MANNARINO brothers personally are interested in the purchase or that it will be referred to someone fronting for them.

Special Agent ROBERT MADDEN, Intelligence Unit, Internal Revenue Service, Pittsburgh, has already advised that his
