In an effort to increase criminal informant coverage, the PCIs under development are being contacted on a continuing and regular basis so that information obtained from them may be used on a day-to-day basis in connection with spot surveillances of the establishments frequented by the subject when he is in the Pittsburgh vicinity.

The identity of the anonymous informant calling himself "TIGER" is still being sought so that he may be contacted personally and will no longer have to depend on the written word for the furnishing of his racket information to the Pittsburgh Office.

It is anticipated that THOMAS MARTIN, Vice President of the Real Estate Department of the Fidelity Trust Co., Potter Branch, in Pittsburgh, will keep the Pittsburgh Office advised of any new developments concerning the proposed construction of a motel financed by MIKE GENOVESE and ARTHUR D. NELSON in the Monroeville, Pa., vicinity which would undoubtedly have to have the approval and overall financial backing of SEBASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCA.

It is further anticipated that former Pittsburgh top hoodlum, SAMUEL NATHANIEL LEVINE, who is now a PCI for the Pittsburgh Office and who is well acquainted with LA ROCCA, will be contacted at regular intervals so that a more complete picture of the racketeering activities in the City of Pittsburgh may be obtained. It should be noted that contacts with LEVINE to date have achieved the latter objective to a degree but have not been productive in furnishing information concerning LA ROCCA.

from that hospital on November 29, 1958, but is still an out-patient. He stated that he has prescribed rest, among other things but that Mrs. LA ROCCA is up and about and has not been bedridden. He recalled that he last saw her just before Christmas and that she appeared to be responding to treatment excellently. He said he has not been contacted by the subject concerning the operation on his wife and does not anticipate a contact of this sort since all prior arrangements were made by Mrs. LA ROCCA herself.

Dr. MILLER advised that he has heard of MIKE GENOVESE and has probably met him through his friends in the rackets but knows very little about him. He searched for the name in his cardex and advised that he performed a hemorrhoidectomy during 1958 on the wife of FELIX "PHIL" GENOVESE, older brother of MIKE. He could furnish no further information of value to this investigation and said he would not be treating Mrs. LA ROCCA again until February, 1959.

PG T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Internal Revenue Service of the United States Treasury Department, is required, as a matter of policy, to periodically mail a form to taxpayers whose returns are under investigation by that organization. He advised that the purpose of this form is merely to obtain the signature of each taxpayer and that this technically keeps the Statute of Limitations running so that re-examination of the return is possible.

conducted by Immigration and Naturalization Service the two ZAPLACINSKI brothers entered the United States illegally on August 13, 1947, after receiving aid from an Erie County Deputy Sheriff, PHILLIP FINA, 445 Fargo Avenue, Buffalo, and ANTHONY J. PANASCI, JR., 921 Niagara Street. It was determined that the ZAPLACINSKI brothers came into Buffalo from Canada in PANASCI's car. After arriving in Buffalo, FINA secured plane reservations in Buffalo for them and made hotel reservations in New York City, using the name of GORDON GANNON, a Buffalo attorney. ANTHONY J. PANASCI, JR., admitted to KARL G. BURROS of the Immigration and Naturalization Service on September 8, 1947, that he had smuggled small quantities of whiskey and cigarettes to Canada, which he gave to the ZAPLACINSKI brothers.

It was also determined that LOUIS ROTHSTEIN, FBI # 243623, of Toronto, was aided by PHILIP FINA in his illegal entry into the United States on August 18, 1950.

During the interview with THOMAS PALOMINO PANASCI, he admitted being involved with his brother, ANTHONY J. PANASCI, JR., in assisting the ZAPLACINSKI brothers into the United States.

The Baltimore Office advised on January 7, 1959, that on December 24, 1958, SA PAUL A. TURNER contacted the office of MAX GOLDBERG in Baltimore and was advised by an unidentified male employee that GOLDBERG had died in a hospital in Pittsburgh within the two weeks prior to this contact. This individual stated that members of the staff of accountants working for GOLDBERG were well aware of the interest of the FBI in locating LA ROCCA and that they would contact the Baltimore Office if they had any subsequent dealings with LA ROCCA.

The Baltimore Office advised that on December 31, 1958, Mrs. MAX GOLDBERG advised SA TURNER that her husband died at Pittsburgh on December 10, 1958, and was buried there. She stated that she has not seen LA ROCCA and has received no information concerning his present whereabouts. She advised that if she received any information concerning the subject in the future she would furnish this to the Baltimore Office and indicated that she intended to continue her husband's accounting operations inasmuch as she was active in his organization for many years. She noted that the Baltimore staff of her husband's business does not know LA ROCCA personally and was evasive in replying to a question as to whether any of the members of the Pittsburgh staff did know LA ROCCA.

Pittsburgh Office Agents determined through investigation on January 24, 1959, that SAMUEL MANNARINO, a close acquaintance and associate of LA ROCCA and GENOVESE, had landed at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport on that date shortly after 5:00 P.M., and had taken a taxi cab (number 128) to New Kensington, Pa. It should be noted that MANNARINO had "disappeared" from the Pittsburgh area shortly after his name was linked to a gun running operation in which stolen Government rifles were found aboard a plane which was carrying them to the Cuban rebels. On January 26, 1959, ALBERT DIMEOLO, U. S. Marshal for the Western District of Pennsylvania at Pittsburgh, advised the Pittsburgh Office that SAMUEL MANNARINO had telephonically contacted him on that morning and advised him that he was at home in New Kensington, Pa. DIMEOLO stated that MANNARINO was thereafter

It should be noted that those officers advised that their informants are close to the MURGIE brothers of Pittsburgh who are now living in that area and who are alleged past associates of LA ROCCA.
