On February 27, 1958, Reverend ANDREW E. DLUGOS, Pastor, St. Michael's Roman Catholic Slovak Church, First Avenue, Jessup, Pa., advised SA JAMES E. CARROLL from official church records that MARY CMELIK was born at Jessup, Pa., on April 2, 1910, and was baptized on April 3, 1910. Her parents were listed as JOHN CMELIK and MAGDALINE GABRIS.

Records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service at Pittsburgh, Pa., as reviewed on December 12, 1957, indicate that IA ROCCA adopted a child named HOWARD LESLIE HOFFMAN at Greensburg, Pa., through the Westmoreland County Orphans Court. The father of this child was identified as TONY TERRIGIO and it was noted that the child was born at Greensburg, Pa., on October 1, 1943. Upon adoption, the child was named JOHN.

Lieutenant Colonel GILBERT PHILIPPS, Admissions Officer, Valley Forge Military Academy, Wayne, Pa., has advised that JOHN LA ROCCA is presently attending Valley Forge Military Academy, where tuition, room and board amounts to approximately $2,225 each school year. He further advised that the only close associate of LA ROCCA at the academy is DOMENICK VINCENT RIPEPI, son of ANTONIO RIPEPI, a close associate of the elder LA ROCCA at Pittsburgh, Pa.

PHILIPPS advised that cadets are not required to account for money furnished to them by their parents or guardians and that this would apply also to the money these cadets spend at the post exchange or while away from the academy. They are not required to furnish memoranda and their mode of travel from the school to their homes during vacation periods. It should be noted that LA ROCCA is presently scheduled to graduate from Valley Forge Military Academy on June 3, 1961, and according to his father intends to pursue a course in law.

V. Origin of the Interest of LA ROCCA in Racketeering and Steps Leading to Current Position and Activities in Racketeering Matters

The most complete understanding of the origin and background of the interest of LA ROCCA in racketeering and the steps leading up to his current position and activities in racketeering matters, can be obtained from information relating to the early activities of LA ROCCA, furnished to the Pittsburgh Office of the FBI as follows:

On February 27, 1958, [redacted] advised that he had been in the numbers writing activity since about 1928 and is still active in this regard. He said that most of Pittsburgh's present day "big racket men" once depended on him solely for protection purposes since he knew local and state police figures and recalled that JOHN LA ROCCA was one of these racketeers. [redacted] stated that LA ROCCA became acquainted with him in about 1941 or 1942 when LA ROCCA was handling all the numbers activity in the East Liberty Section of Pittsburgh and had set himself up as a "little god." When LA ROCCA became dissatisfied with his financial gains, he left Pittsburgh on a trip to Chicago to see friends about paste reel machines with which he felt he could make more money. [redacted] said a paste reel was similar to a "one-armed bandit" with the exception that a small paper-wrapped mint was dispensed after the coin was placed in the slot and the play was registered. The Chicago manufacturer of this machine circumvented the "strictly for gambling purposes" phraseology in the law in this manner. JFK Act 6 (4)

While LA ROCCA was in Chicago, [redacted] said he moved into the East Liberty Section and took over the entire numbers operation. He turned in his numbers returns to one GEORGE CHRISTY (now deceased) in Pittsburgh. When LA ROCCA returned to Pittsburgh he became angry with [redacted] and his move and had someone drive a car over [redacted] one night as he was crossing a street. [redacted] said when he was discharged from the hospital he found out that his automobile had numerous bullet holes in it. [redacted] said that because he thought he would make money in the East Liberty Section, he stayed in the business of writing numbers and actually forced LA ROCCA out of the numbers business.

[redacted] advised that in about 1943, he and LA ROCCA became friendly and LA ROCCA invited him to share equally in the ownership of the Coin Machine Distributing Company which later set up offices at 5746 Baum Boulevard, in Pittsburgh. [redacted] recalled that LA ROCCA was completely bankrupt at that time because of numbers setbacks but managed to raise enough money to put up his share. [] said he personally traveled to Chicago to arrange for the purchase of machines to be distributed by this company and had a verbal agreement with ART ROONEY who allowed him to place these machines throughout the East Liberty, Homewood, and Garfield Sections of Pittsburgh where ROONEY was not operating. According to [] ROONEY, who is the present owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers, professional football club, was the only man who could get paste reels before LA ROCCA tried, and controlled the entire Pittsburgh vicinity in this regard. [] said that the Government placed a $100 tax stamp on each machine and the city of Pittsburgh put a $50 tax stamp on each machine. He said that other owners of the company, in addition to himself and LA ROCCA, were FRANK AMATO, BARNEY MC GINLEY, SAMUEL MANNARINO, and F. W. ZOGG, the latter from Chicago. JFK Act 6 (4)

[] advised that the company was doing well financially before Allegheny County authorities raided establishments where the machines had been placed and forced it out of business. He recalled that, although each of the six aforementioned individuals owned an equal share in the company, SAM MANNARINO and LA ROCCA seemed to run everything and held meetings at which important subjects were discussed in Italian, which he did not understand. He advised that he realized that LA ROCCA was only using him for his proven protection methods and [] did not mind as long as he got his cut of the profits. He recalled that during 1946 or 1947, MIKE GENOVESE came on the scene. He stated that this individual had been a pickup man for LA ROCCA in the East Liberty-Homewood Section of Pittsburgh and was a tough kid who, according to [] "was almost begging to go to jail." He said LA ROCCA turned GENOVESE over to him and asked [] to "keep him clean" because he had him in mind for future plans. He recalled that FRANK VALENTI, who was present at the Apalachin conference of hoodlums, and ANTONIO RIPEPI, a Pittsburgh hoodlum, visited the offices of the Coin Machine Distributing Company regularly and always took orders from MANNARINO and LA ROCCA. He said RIPEPI was a more important racket man than VALENTI but that LA ROCCA seemed to be the key man in the Pittsburgh area. He said he would place

B. ASSOCIATES

Among the more prominent currently close associates of LA ROCCA are the following individuals:

Samuel Mannarino, aka.

This individual is an extremely close associate of LA ROCCA who presently resides at 201 Highland Avenue, New Kensington, Pa. He and his brother, GABRIEL, control the New Kensington and Westmoreland County areas as far as the rackets are concerned and are closely allied with the GENOVESE-LA ROCCA organization in the Pittsburgh area. MANNARINO is a former business associate of LA ROCCA who, according to PG T-3, who has requested that his identity remain confidential,

JFK Law 11(a)

He is presently a subject in a case entitled, "BERNARD J. EZHAYA, ET AL, ITSP-MT," which involves the theft of $2,250,000 in bearer bonds and an unknown amount of registered bonds, jewelry, and cash from the Brockville Trust and Savings Company, Brockville, Ontario, Canada, on May 3-4, 1958. The trial in this matter is presently being conducted at Chicago, Illinois. MANNARINO was interviewed by Bureau Agents of the Pittsburgh Office upon his arrest on July 2, 1959, at which time he declined to make any statement and would only engage in general conversation. It can be said that MANNARINO is both a business and social acquaintance of LA ROCCA.

N.Y. Gabriel Mannarino, aka.

This individual, known to his close associates as "KELLY," resides at 540 Charles Street, New Kensington, Pa., and is the younger brother of SAMUEL MANNARINO. He is a close social associate of LA ROCCA and is a business associate also, as far as criminal activity is concerned. He was present at the Apalachin conference of hoodlums during December, 1957, and on June 11, 1959, appeared with LA ROCCA before the Senate Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field of the United States, where
