Reference is made to your communication dated May 15, 1963, your reference 8/4324.

On May 23, 1963, Santiago Alvarez Rodriguez, one of the individuals involved in the March 27, 1963, attack against Cuba, was interviewed concerning the bomb used in this attack. He stated that the bomb was made in the Bahamas with material brought from the United States and assembled on a deserted, unidentified island in the Bahamas. He further stated that no Cuban revolutionary camp was involved; that no Cuban residents of the Bahamas participated; and that only the participants of the March 27, 1963, raid had knowledge of this bomb. He declined to furnish any further information in this matter.
