On 10/26/66, SJ 627-S, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that he has recently been approached within the past two days to captain the Cuban exile organization sailing vessel named the "Angelina" during a planned "raid" on Cuba. Source explained that it is desired that he take one month's leave of absence from his job and participate in these Comandos L plans. He explained that he has been extremely reluctant to participate in plans of this type in the past, but since his fellow Cubans have personally sought his help, he feels a certain obligation to do something for his country of Cuba. He said that he will participate in these plans if the FBI does not object and if these conditions are met by the Comandos L people, namely:

- 3 - Bureau (RM)
- 1 - Miami (RM)
- 1 - San Juan

- (2 - 105-6323)
- (1 - 134-864 (Adm))
- (1 - 134-864 (Inv))
- (1 - 109-44)

(1) that he is able to choose his own crew, (2) that he is able to have all repairs done on the "Angelina" that he personally feels should be done, (3) and that he have adequate provisions on board, pointing out that he sailed the "Angelina" from Miami, Florida, to San Juan, Puerto Rico, with two cans of beans and three frankfurters on board. (u)

Source further explained that it is his initial understanding that this "raid" will not be like previous raids wherein damage was inflicted to the city of Havana, but would be an infiltration attempt of several Cubans through Camaguey. He would be the Captain of the "Angelina" which would be the mother vessel which would house the fuel for the Comandos L speed boat "Pitirre". He would sail the "Angelina" to a point approximately 100 miles from the coast of Cuba and then wait for the return of the "Pitirre". He himself would never leave the command of the "Angelina" and he would not participate any further in the "raid". (u)

He also understands that this plan is not sponsored solely by Comandos L, but it is also in conjunction with the other two Anti-CASTRO groups that have signed a pact with Comandos L, RECE, and Brigada 2506. (u)

Source advised that he has gone no further than to talk this matter over with the FBI and has told his contact people in Comandos L that he needs time to think about this matter. He will now proceed further with this plan, placing emphasis on the fact that his three conditions must be met. (u)

Source also pointed out a problem concerning his immigration status if he decides to participate in this "raid". He is in the United States as a refugee and presently his immigration papers are on file at the United States embassy in Santo Domingo. He anticipates that he will receive an invitation from the embassy in the near future to travel to Santo Domingo in order to obtain his resident alien status, thereby granting him facilities to depart from the United States and to reenter at will. (u)

Source was advised that the FBI in no way participates in the backing of any plans of the Cuban exiles. It was pointed out to him that the FBI could not condone his actions, and that (u)
