HARRY RAYMOND POPE

Pope has been approved as replacement for Dominick Scialo, who surrendered July 27, 1959. The release date for Pope to the press will be Tuesday P.M., August 11, 1959.

ANGELO LUIGI PERO

Morris "Moishe" Biolansky and Sidney Seewald, former associates of Pero, were interviewed subsequent to Scialo's surrender and both denied any knowledge of Pero's whereabouts. However, they both expressed the opinion that Pero will surrender himself in the near future in view of Scialo's surrender. Mary Pero has been interviewed subsequent to Scialo's surrender and denied hearing anything regarding her husband. She was aware of Scialo's surrender from newspaper publicity and expressed the hope that Pero is well and would likewise surrender. Various clubs, bars and hoodlum hangouts which Pero is known to have frequented are being checked by Agents of the New York Office in an effort to ascertain information concerning Pero.

EDWIN SANFORD GARRISON

Forest Ford, former prison associate of Garrison, described subject as a lone wolf individual who was too smart to talk of any plans for the future. Ford said Garrison told him while in prison that if he ever escaped again, he would not make the same mistake resulting in capture. The mistake Garrison spoke of was that he had stayed in the United States. For this reason, Ford expressed the opinion that he does not believe Garrison is now in the United States. Norman Eugene Price, former associate of Garrison, has expressed the opinion that he feels Garrison might have gone to Cuba. The Legal Attache, Havana is conducting investigation in Cuba in an effort to determine whether or not subject might possibly be in that country.

EUGENE FRANCIS NEWMAN

On the basis of information developed during July, 1959, that Newman may be in contact with the Francis Typewriter and Radio Store, New York City, Jerry Francis, owner of this store, was interviewed by the New York Office. He denied any knowledge of subject's whereabouts and stated the last time he had seen subject was prior to his becoming a fugitive. Francis pledged his full cooperation should he develop information of value. New York Potential Criminal Informant [redacted] is being sent to Norfolk, Virginia, immediately after his car, which was in an accident, is repaired, in an effort to develop further information on Newman. A former girl friend of Newman reported meeting him in Norfolk on or about June 30, 1959.

FREDERICK GRANT DUNN

Dunn, while incarcerated in the U. S. Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, indicated he might travel to Canada and stay with an old buddy of his, Donald O'Malley. Extensive investigation both in the United States and Canada was conducted to locate O'Malley. The Royal Canadian Mounted Police has recently indicated that O'Malley was located at the Saskatchewan Penitentiary where he is presently serving a four-year sentence. Initial interview of O'Malley by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police was limited. However, additional interviews are contemplated by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at an early date and it is anticipated information of value may be elicited from him regarding Dunn's whereabouts.

DAVID DANIEL KEEGAN

U.S.A.

Unsupported allegations are being received from time to time that Keegan had been killed by one or both of his accomplices in the robbery-murder for which he is being sought. In addition to other exhaustive investigative efforts, careful investigation is being conducted to pinpoint information relative to Keegan's death.
