MM 105-1891.

MONTESINO and other persons, in order that the interview with the subject could be more thorough and detailed. The subject is an unscrupulous and immoral individual, who undoubtedly would lie if it benefited him. For this reason, it is believed Polygraph examination of the subject would be revealing and worthwhile, and for this reason, the Bureau will be requested for authorization to Polygraph subject after FAJARDO is located and interviewed.

RAMIRO SANCHEZ MONTESINO, shortly after SANCHEZ' incarceration in Cuba in December, 1962, said he encountered subject in a supermarket in Miami. At this time, the subject indicated he was working for CIA. Mr. JOSEPH VIDAL, CIA, covert, Miami (protect), advised on July 22, 1963, subject is not working for that agency, and that agency has no operational interest in him. (S)(u)
