WFO file 135-355 discloses that by routing slip dated 7/12/65, the Bureau advised that COMSAT was a prime contractor to the Defense Communications Agency with an Advanced Communications Satellite Project involving classified access and materials at "Secret" level. Investigation reveals that ESTELLE ROJO, payee on a check in the amount of $220 drawn from the account of EDUARDO DIAZ on 7/8/67, is employed at COMSAT and is perhaps related to Mrs. ESTELA L. ROJO, Attache at the Chilean Embassy, Washington, D. C. In view of the sensitive nature of work performed at this establishment, ROJO's possible relationship to a foreign diplomatic official, the nature of captioned organization and contacts which DIAZ has had with a diplomatic representative of a communist nation, WFO will attempt to further identify ROJO and determine the nature of her position at COMSAT and what access she may have to classified information there. WFO files contain no identifiable information concerning ESTELLE ROJO, Mrs. ESTELA L. ROJO, ESTELA LORCA DE ROJO, ESTELA DE ROJO, DAVID ROJO, or DANIEL ROJO VILAR.

WFO files contain no identifiable information concerning Father PATRICIO CARIOLA, Reverend RICHARD KENNA, or STEPHEN HUMPHREYS.

Information from CIA concerning HUMBERTO MALINARICH is located in instant WFO file, serial 65, which information was made available by Bureau 0-7 dated 9/28/67, and which information is classified "SECRET, NO FOREIGN DISSEMINATION." Information from USDS concerning MALINARICH is located in WFO file 105-0-L, serial 1407, made available by Bureau 0-7, dated 7/20/64, and is classified "Confidential." Information from INS concerning MALINARICH is unclassified and is located in WFO file 105-0-L, serial 1407D, and was made available by Bureau 0-7 dated 8/5/64.

On 10/26/67, Source of Information [redacted] (S) BELGIUM (protect), of "Time", advised that ALINE MOSBY has been associated "off and on" with United Press International (UPI) for many years. As of 1950 she had a by-line in New York City. In approximately 1952 she wanted to go to Europe but UPI would not send her. She left UPI and paid her own way to the Brussels World Fair where she served for a while as a guide at the Fair. MOSBY rejoined UPI in approximately 1957 or 1958 and was assigned to Moscow, Russia, where she served "for some time". Though his recollections concerning MOSBY were vague, he had the impression MOSBY had left UPI again during the past four or five years and was doing free-lance work in Western Europe. He advised he had also heard recently that MOSBY had been "syndicating" out of New York City on world affairs. [redacted] had no knowledge (CS) of MOSBY being approached by IPS for employment.

[redacted] subsequently made available a copy of the (CS) 10/28/67 issue of "The Overseas Press Bulletin," weekly publication of The Overseas Press Club of America, World Press Center, 54 West 40th Street, New York, New York, which contained an article beginning on page one entitled "Forum Will Show How View of Bolshevism Has Changed". The article identified and described panel guests and dais guests for the OPC's Edward R. Murrow World Affairs Forum, "50 Years of Bolshevism: Evolution and Critique," scheduled for 11/6/67 at the Hotel Delmonico, New York City. ALINE MOSBY, who was described as having served two tours of duty in Moscow for UPI (1959-1962, 1964-1965) was listed among distinguished dais guests for the forum. Her book, "The View from No. 13 People's Street," is based on her tenure there. Outstanding guests for the critique included former U. S. Ambassador to the USSR, GEORGE KENNAN; New York University Professor SIDNEY HOOK; ISAAC DON LEVINE, author of "The Russian Revolution;" HARRISON SALISBURY, Assistant Managing Editor of "The New York Times"; ALEXANDRA TOLSTOY, daughter of famed Russian novelist LEO TOLSTOY and numerous other distinguished personalities knowledgeable in Soviet affairs.

Synopsis:

Another Government agency reported in 9/67 information from a source acquired in 8/67 that IPS has signed agreements with Governments of Venezuela, Colombia and Peru to provide teletyped news to official Government information offices and overseas embassies of each. Source also reported IPS Latin American (LA) headquarters of IPS put up for sale a few months ago, but IPS Director ROBERTO SAVIO changed his mind about selling. A letter from Latin American Newsletters Ltd., London, dated 9/5/67, directed to Young & Rubicam Puerto Rico, Inc., solicited subscription for "Latin America," described as a weekly newsletter on political and economic developments in LA, published in cooperation with IPS. Copy of 9/8/67 issue of "Latin America," enclosed with the letter, set forth in appendix. Quotations from an IPS memorandum also enclosed in letter, setting forth quotations touting "Latin America," includes statements attributed to University of Texas and Crocker-Citizens National Bank, San Francisco. Translation set forth of undated IPS memorandum furnished by confidential source 10/67 indicating IPS signed contracts with Governments of Chile, Venezuela, Colombia, Italy, Ministry of Overseas Development of Britain, European Common Market and
