Tampa airtel 5-7-64 requested Miami to determine if training of Cubans was a CIA operation. On 5-11-64, Miss HENRIETTA LORI, CIA liaison, covert (protect) advised that CIA had no interest in WEIR W. WILLIAMS and possessed no information about him or the reported training of Cubans on WILLIAM's property. Miami RUC report of SA JAMES J. O'CONNOR 7-8-64, reflects investigation discontinued on basis of Bureau teletype advising that the Department of Justice was not asking for further active investigation in view of the apparent involvement of JURE. Tampa closing report 7-17-64 reflects a changed title to show the name of WEIR P. WILLIAMS on whose property the training camp was located and, also the name of LUIS CLEMENTE FAUSTINO POSADA CARRILES, the chief instructor at the camp. The camp was known as Campo de Insurgencia Jose Marti. Numerous memos have been channeled to this file and should be further reviewed if necessary by the Agent. 92-726-394 Miami Report of SA Warren R. Welsh 11-12-65.
Re: Frank Lang "Lefty" Rosenthal, aka AR; IGA.

The administrative pages of this report reflects the Bureau advised that local police authorities should be advised that LUIS POSADA CARRILES, was in possession of a gun equipped with a silencer, unless reasons exist to the contrary. Information was not furnished to the authorities due to the delicate nature of information received from CIA and Miami security informants.

On 9-30-65, Miami advised Secret Service under category three regarding the above.

On 11-5-65, [] identified a photo of NORMAN ROTHMAN, as the American who accompanied ROSENTHAL and an unidentified third American male whom [] believed to be a gun dealer. [] thought the third man a gun dealer because on occasion of meeting the third American the first time at a garage operated by DIEGO BORGES, the third man had a gun and seemed to be very knowledgeable about guns in general. This individual asked if a silencer could be obtained for a specific type of gun. [] related the silencers involved in the deal between BORGES and the three Americans were made or obtained by FRANCISCO RODRIGUEZ TAMAYO, a Cuban exile. [] said that he accompanied RODRIGUEZ when he turned about six silencers over to BORGES. BORGES intended to turn over to the Americans the silencers but later learned they were no good.

On 7/14/66, [REDACTED] advised that he was personally acquainted with MITCHELL WER BEL and had spent considerable time with WER BEL in the Dominican Republic. He stated that he has heard WER BEL on occasions introduce himself as ALEX WILSON.

[REDACTED] advised that he was personally acquainted with LUIS POSADA, in whom CIA has an operational interest. He advised that POSADA is receiving approximately $300 per month from CIA.

OTHER 4

He further indicated that three anti-CASTRO organizations, namely the 30th of November, RECE and Comandos-L, were attempting to establish a base in the Dominican Republic and form a military alliance there of the three organizations for action against FIDEL CASTRO. LUIS POSADA has been approached to accept the position as military head of this alliance. POSADA formerly held a commission in the U. S. Army and allegedly was in a ranger battalion. According to [REDACTED] because of this, POSADA was selected to head the group. POSADA was interested in having the PSI assist him in the Dominican Republic inasmuch as [REDACTED] had spent considerable time aboard the "Venus," a boat that was operated by another anti-CASTRO group.

1. [redacted] residing at 2635 S.W. 28th St., Miami, telephone 445-0206, is a contact of this office and the source of the information reported to the FBI in referenced memoranda. On 9 June 1967, [redacted] advised this office that subsequent to the events reported in referenced memoranda, circa October 1966, he was contacted by Frank "Lefty" ROSENTHAL who visited [redacted] home. ROSENTHAL told [redacted] that all the silencers he had purchased from [redacted] were pieces of junk and that he felt [redacted] and Diego BORGES were responsible and maybe his friends would kill [redacted] and BORGES some day. ROSENTHAL further stated that in spite of the fact he was out $5000 for the equipment, he didn't want money from [redacted]. He said he knew [redacted] was working for the CIA and that he wanted some CIA "equipment". He asked [redacted] to steal such "equipment" and give it to him. [redacted] allegedly refused to do so at which time ROSENTHAL said that his friends thought [redacted] had made a fool of them and if [redacted] didn't do something to make ROSENTHAL's friends happy, [redacted] was a dead man. [redacted] then made a number of fuse devices which he gave to ROSENTHAL which seemed to make ROSENTHAL happy.

2. In early June 1967, ROSENTHAL again visited [redacted] home and told [redacted] that the fuse devices were faulty and one of his friends had had an accident as a result of [redacted] work. He reiterated a desire to have some CIA fuse devices as well as a remote control unit for detonating explosive charges. He "reminded" [redacted] that he still owed them $5000 worth of "equipment".

Cuban nationals LUIS POSADA and GUSTAVO ORTIZ are in charge of Section 1 of the General Directorate of Police (DIGIPOL), the Venezuelan secret police. This section is in charge of all Cuban activities and movements in Venezuela. POSADA and ORTIZ reportedly have gained such control that every Cuban who enters or leaves Venezuela is required to submit to an interview by this section. POSADA is a "gangster type" and he and ORTIZ are reportedly very effective, using strong-arm methods to obtain information and fight pro-CASTRO elements. For example, if an individual is identified as a CASTRO supporter, they do not bother to question him or advise him of any rights but simply eliminate him. They are under the direct supervision of ERASTO FERNANDEZ, the head of DIGEPOL. ERASTO FERNANDEZ has recently been under investigation by high Venezuelan authorities. DIGEPOL recently arrested two Venezuelan students who were subsequently found dead and FERNANDEZ has been under investigation by the Venezuelan Senate because of those and other similar activities. CAME AWARE RICARDO ~~WAS~~ MERELY AN AUXILIARY ~~MEMBER OF DISIP~~, AND THAT ~~HE~~ WAS ACTUALLY IN THE PERSONAL SERVICE OF LUIS POSADA. RICARDO REVEALED HE WAS ALSO A NEWSPAPER REPORTER AND PHOTOGRAPHER AFFILIATED WITH THE MAGAZINE "VISION," AND INDICATED HE DEVOTED MOST OF HIS TIME RESEARCHING NEWS ARTICLES INTENDED TO DISCREDIT THE CASTRO GOVERNMENT. HE CLAIMED PARTIAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR A NEWSPAPER ARTICLE THAT APPEARED IN A CARACAS NEWSPAPER ABOUT THAT TIME, REVEALING THE PRESENCE OF CUBAN INTELLIGENCE OFFICERS IN CUBAN EMBASSY IN CARACAS. ~~X~~

RICARDO CONTACTED LEGAT APPROXIMATELY FOUR TIMES AFTER THE INITIAL VISIT, AND ON TWO OCCASIONS FURNISHED PHOTOGRAPHS AND BIOGRAPHICAL DATA ON MEMBERS OF THE CUBAN EMBASSY ~~WHICH WERE~~ OBVIOUSLY OBTAINED FROM ~~DISIP FILES~~. DURING ONE VISIT, RICARDO SUGGESTED LEGAT MIGHT WISH TO MAKE SOME SUGGESTIONS REGARDING COURSES OF ACTION THAT MIGHT BE TAKEN AGAINST THE CUBAN EMBASSY IN CARACAS BY AN ANTI-CASTRO GROUP OF WHICH HE FORMED PART. LEGAT INFORMED RICARDO SUCH WAS NOT PART OF THE FUNCTION OF THE LEGAL ATTACHE'S OFFICE, AND THAT IN ANY EVENT, LEGAT PERSONALLY ABHORRED TERRORIST ACTIVITIES REGARDLESS OF WHOM THEY MIGHT BE DIRECTED AGAINST. LEGAT POINTED OUT TO RICARDO THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WAS DOING EVERYTHING IT COULD TO PREVENT DISRUPT

IN A CONVERSATION WITH ~~AN~~ ^(S) [OFFICIAL OF DISIP] ON OCTOBER 1, 1976, LEGAT BROACHED THE SUBJECT OF RICARDO AND OF THE FAINT SUSPICION THAT RICARDO MAY HAVE BEEN SOMEHOW INVOLVED IN THE BOMBING OF THE GUYANESE CONSULATE IN PORT-OF-SPAIN. LEGAT ADMITTED THERE WAS NO SUBSTANTIVE EVIDENCE OF RICARDO'S IMPLICATION, BUT THAT THE COINCIDENCE OF HIS PRESENCE THERE AT THE APPROPRIATE TIME, COUPLED WITH HIS EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP WITH ^(S) LUIS POSADA, HAD GIVEN LEGAT CAUSE TO WONDER. THE ^(S) [DISIP OFFICIAL] RELATED ^(S) [DISIP] HAD NO REASON TO BELIEVE RICARDO WAS THE CALIBER OF INDIVIDUAL THAT WOULD BE UTILIZED IN SUCH AN OPERATION,

AND THAT RICARDO WAS NOT KNOWN TO BE INVOLVED IN SUCH ACTIVITIES, IN SPITE OF HIS ASSOCIATION WITH POSADA. ^(S) ~~(S)~~ (u)

ON OCTOBER 3, 1976, A CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE ABROAD ADVISED HE HAD DISCOVERED THAT THE INDIVIDUAL ARRESTED IN TRINIDAD, AND WHO IS IN POSSESSION OF THE VENEZUELAN PASSPORT ISSUED TO JOSE VAZQUEZ GARCIA, IS ACTUALLY HERNAN RICARDO LOZANO. HE SAID HE DETERMINED THAT RICARDO AND FREDDY LUGO, THE OTHER VENEZUELAN ARRESTED IN TRINIDAD, HAD BEEN PART OF THE SUPPORT GROUP IN THE SABOTAGE OPERATION AGAINST THE CUBANA AIRLINER IN BARBADOS. HE SAID THE OPERATION HAD NOT GONE AS PLANNED BECAUSE IT WAS INTENDED THAT THE BOMB SHOULD EXPLODE BEFORE THE AIRCRAFT TOOK OFF FROM BARBADOS. THE SOURCE STATED THAT APPARENTLY THE TIMING MECHANISM ON THE BOMB HAD NOT BEEN PROPERLY SET. ^(S) ~~(S)~~ (u)
