NEV Referenced airtel from Las Vegas to Los Angeles dated 12/8/66, set forth that on 12/2/66, LV 203-C-TE advised SA CARL F. FREEMAN that approximately nine months ago, informant had an argument with CARL SPARACINO in Las Vegas over a business transaction. SPARACINO and informant subsequently became friendly again, at which time SPARACINO stated that following their argument, SPARACINO had attempted to contact JOHN ROSELLI to report the actions of informant. The source was questioned as to what ROSELLI could do in a matter like this and informant stated that had SPARACINO been able to contact ROSELLI, informant would have had to answer to ROSELLI concerning any complaints that SPARACINO had against him.

Informant was questioned as to why ROSELLI would have control of him or any other Italians in Las Vegas and he stated that ROSELLI was a very powerful man in the Las Vegas area and handled a number of disputes between Italians in Las Vegas.

Informant also pointed out that had SPARACINO known or reported him to FRANK DESIMONE of Los Angeles, then the informant would have had to go before DESIMONE to straighten out the argument.

Informant was very reluctant to actually state that subject's position was connected with the LCN but implied ROSELLI was an arbitrator for problems arising between two Italians.

This information should be carefully paraphrased if used in a report since it could be directly connected with the informant if used in a report which is disseminated.

On 8/17/66, NY 5542-C-TE (an LCN member source) advised SAs PAUL G. DURKIN and CHARLES G. DONNELLY that he recently visited the Flamingo Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada. While in the Candlelight Room at this hotel he observed a very dapper and distinguished looking gentleman, who made a definite impression on the informant. He made inquiries and determined he was JOHN ROSELLI from Los Angeles.

It is to be noted at this time he did not know ROSELLI to be a member of LCN.

Subsequently, informant visited Miami and while in conversation with JOHN BIELE, aka Johnny Foto (GAMBLING LCN "family" member) mentioned he had seen ROSELLI in the Flamingo Hotel. FOTO claimed he and ROSELLI were very good friends. Further, that ROSELLI was very close to FRANK COSTELLO (GENOVESE LCN "family" member). In addition, he was told ROSELLI either has the concession for entertainment or a gift concession in the Flamingo Hotel. At this time FOTO stated ROSELLI is a "friend of ours". Formerly ROSELLI was with FRANK COSTELLO, but now is with VITO GENOVESE. He also stated ROSELLI had the apartment in back of the Desert Inn and is apparently very wealthy.

IT IS TO BE NOTED THAT IF ANY OF THE ABOVE INFORMATION FURNISHED BY NY 5542-C-TE IS USED IN A REPORT OR DISSEMINATED IN ANY MANNER, IT SHOULD BE CAREFULLY PARAPHRASED INASMUCH AS THE IDENTITY OF THE INFORMANT COULD EASILY BE ASCERTAINED.

With regard to the statement that ROSELLI has either a concession for entertainment or the gift concession at the Flamingo Hotel, it is noted that the Los Angeles Office has no information to substantiate this. It is recalled, however, that in 1957, when the Tropicana Hotel was being built, ROSELLI purchased the gift concession at that hotel for $5,000 which he sold back to the hotel within a short period of time for $150,000.

On 10/14/66, LA 4448-C-TE advised that he had recently received a telephone call from KAREN FLYNN, an acquaintance of his whom he had not seen for several years but who he had recalled had dated JOHN MIRA six or seven years ago. MIRA's father owns the Batavia, New York Race Track. It is recalled that KAREN FLYNN has been previously identified in this investigation as a girl friend of JOHN ROSELLI.

KAREN FLYNN told LA 4448-C-TE that several years ago she loaned MIRA $1,000 which he never repaid. She requested informant to contact MIRA and attempt to obtain this money.

Informant telephonically contacted MIRA who acknowledged that FLYNN had loaned him some money but he recalled that he had repaid some of it and owed her not more than half the amount of $1,000.
