MM 1337-S then contacted CARRERAS at his residence, Apartment 706, Borinquen Towers Apartments. Source described CARRERAS as a member of FLNC and friend of REINOL RODRIGUEZ. Source went to CARRERAS' apartment and a short time later, REINOL RODRIGUEZ and (FNU) PADILLA arrived. PADILLA was introduced as #2 man of FLNC in Puerto Rico. PADILLA described as white male, age late thirties or early forties, 5 ft. 6 in. tall, 160 pounds, strong build, brown hair with a few gray hairs, wears glasses. RODRIGUEZ asked CARRERAS to leave his apartment while "top level" FLNC affairs were discussed, so CARRERAS was then not present during discussion of FLNC matters. (X)(U)

Source explained to RODRIGUEZ and PADILLA the new structure of the FLNC as agreed upon at the meeting of 4/20/75 in Miami, when the following attended this meeting:

- ORLANDO ACOSTA
- RAFAEL PEREZ DORESTE
- ALFREDO SAYUZ FLA.
- SIXTO ARCE
- OSCAR ANGELO
- ANTONIO MUNIZ

Member of the NATIONAL Liberation
FRONT OF CUBA

(U)(X) P.R.

Under the new structure, the above six persons would comprise the paramilitary branch of the FLNC. This branch would handle finances, political projections and propaganda. The other section of the FLNC would be the military branch, which would be made up of four sections:

- International Chief
- International Military Coordinator
- International Coordinator of Action and Sabotage
- International Coordinator of Naval Operations

A member chosen from the paramilitary group would be in charge of liaison and communications between the two groups. This member, who is now ALFREDO SAYUZ of Miami, will be responsible for the dissemination of decisions of (X)(U) advise the others that they must send all their plans of action to CASTRO in writing, for his approval. FRANK CASTRO also mentioned that RAUL CABRERA and REINOL RODRIGUEZ should be very careful and "lay low" for a while so their equipment does not fall into the hands of the FBI. CASTRO said that the FLNC should stop its naval operations for the time being and concentrate on plans to bomb Cuban Embassies. He said this could include Cuban diplomatic establishments inside and outside the U.S. CASTRO said that for the time being, these would be the only targets in the U.S. under consideration, except for Puerto Rico, which is "free territory." Source said FRANK CASTRO has passes to military bases in the Dominican Republic and, on one occasion, source entered an air force base with CASTRO, where they had a drink. CASTRO also told the source that the Chief of Security of an intelligence service (source does not know if military or police) is a cousin of his mother-in-law and this chief from time to time checks with the American Embassy in Santo Domingo to determine what information the Embassy has on the FLNC and FRANK CASTRO. (X)(u)

FRANK CASTRO said that in order to collect money for the FLNC, bonds will be printed containing the signature of EUMBERTO LOPEZ, JR. CASTRO also said that he will try to meet Bureau fugitive Dr. ORLANDO BOSCH, place not specified, in order to discuss the possibility of BOSCH's organization, Accion Cubana, joining with the FLNC. (X)(u)

FRANK CASTRO said that RAUL CABRERA has all the FLNC equipment including boats, weapons and ammunition and that only RAUL CABRERA knows where they are hidden. (X)(u)

Source said that the telephone number of the farm where FRANK CASTRO lives in the Dominican Republic is 682-8303. (u)

Source asked CASTRO how he planned to transport explosives to several countries to bomb the various Cuban Embassies. CASTRO said he will have no trouble transporting the explosives due to his excellent contacts in the Dominican Air Force. (X)(u)
