The NYO, upon completion of a review of its files concerning the Cuban Nationalist Movement (CNM) and the Movimiento Insurreccional de Recuperacion Revolucionaria (MIRR), was unable to come up with any potential suspects who might be furnishing information to the Cuban Intelligence Service (CIS).

The MIRR in the NY area is a small, non-functional organization which, according to PEDRO YANES, a member of its National Board, disbanded about a year and a half ago. According to YANES all direction and activity stems from the Miami area and in particular, from Dr. ORLANDO BOSCH-AVILA. YANES further stated that according to his knowledge, all activity in the MIRR is directed solely by Dr. ORLANDO BOSCH.

The CNM in the NY area is rather small in number and operates, at least recently, without the direction of the CNM in Miami. The only individuals in the Miami area who are consulted by IGNACIO NOVO and GUILLERMO NOVO are JULIO C. PEREZ y PEREZ and EVARISTO GARCIA, Jr. There has been no indication from sources familiar with the CNM or the Cuban Mission to the United Nations that any of the CNM in the NY area have been in contact with, or have had contact from, anyone currently assigned to the Cuban Mission to the United Nations.

Concerning the specific information relating to a possible attack on a Cuban ship, which was received from Legat, Ottawa and contained in reButel 3/12/68, the NYO would like to point out that the possibility exists that the letter circulated by "VANGUARDIA REVOLUCIONARIA CUBANA" was originally dated February 28, 1968. This letter was furnished on 3/15/68 to CIA by STANLEY ROSS, Editor, "EL TIEMPO", and it contained in essence a threat against Cuban and Soviet bloc representatives together with a threat to attack Cuban ships. It is possible that this letter may have fallen into the hands of CIS personnel and in turn, was relayed to the Cuban Ambassador in Ottawa, Canada. It is also possible that the individuals responsible for sending this letter, now believed to be JOSE RAMON EGUES and his associates, could very well have sent a letter to the Cuban Mission to the UN, to the UN or even to one of the Ministries of the Cuban Government in Havana, Cuba. ] ~~TOP SECRET~~ (u)

[The NYO will remain constantly alert for the possibility that the CIS has infiltrated the CNM, the MIRR or other anti-CASTRO revolutionary organizations] The NYO also contemplates interviewing JOSE RAMON EGUES vigorously concerning his activities with "VANGUARDIA REVOLUCIONARIA CUBANA". [During this interview, the NYO will attempt to determine whether or not EGUES and his group had sent this letter to any representative of the Cuban Government which could be the explanation why the Cuban Government was in the possession of the information indicating that the exiles were planning to take some reciprocal action for the ramming of a lifeboat by the Cuban freighter "JULY 26" off the coast of Virginia in February, 1968.] ~~TOP SECRET~~ (u)

The Bureau will be kept advised of all developments in this matter.
