ReBuairtel dated 3/19/68 concerning possibility that Cuban Intelligence has source reporting on captioned anti-CASTRO group. (wru)

A review of the files of the Miami Office concerning CUBANT and MIRR, and members of these organizations reflects that both groups are small, compact organizations with few members. Both organizations have had the same members since their early activities in Miami, have not admitted new members, and have continuously used the same persons over and over for military and terrorist activities.

In the case of MIRR, ORLANDO BOSCH AVILA has used different pilots such as MM 635-S, ARTHUR GIRTEIT EVELIO ALPIZAR and others for each planned air operation and most of these operations have failed. However, in operations concerning moving arms and involving boats, BOSCH has used the same four or five men over and over and these men have four to five arrests each. BOSCH's pilots have usually been informants or cooperative with the Government. The four or five exiles used to transport arms and attempt sea operations for BOSCH are known to be loyal to BOSCH and uncooperative with the Government.
