CG T-36 advised that there are no waiters at Norwood House and that the waitresses are all married and at least over 30 years of age. He furnished the name of the first cook as ELLIS (LNU), telephone LI 8-7185. He stated another cook was named SMITTY and that possibly his first name is EMMETT. CG T-36 advised that one GLEN (LNU) is the head busboy at this restaurant and appears to be more acquainted with "hoodlums" than any of the other employees. He explained that GLEN and his wife reside in the rear of TRIP MEO's woman's clothing store on North Avenue and that GLEN's wife works in this same store. Further, that GLEN has worked at TONY ACCARDO's house and some of the other "hoodlums" for private parties. He stated that GLEN is about 40 years of age and drives a 1956 Pontiac which is white and pink in color. (U)

CG T-36 stated that years ago, before the MEO brothers got into the restaurant business, JIMMY MEO had an orchestra which was well known throughout the Middle West and that CHUCK MEO worked for one "NEEDLES" in some type of gambling set up. (U)

On May 8, 1958, CG T-36 was recontacted by SA ESAREY and a group of photographs of individuals in the Chicago area were exhibited to CG T-36. The following listed individuals were picked out of the group of photographs by CG T-36: (U)

CG T-36 furnished the name of one JAMES DALLAS, commonly known as "SHERMAN" who has worked for approximately ten years at the Villa Venice as a cook. He described DALLAS as a tall thin dark fellow, approximately 40 years of age, who tells a lot of lies and always has creditors chasing him. He added, however, that DALLAS seems to be a favorite of SAM MOONEY at the Villa Venice. He explained that SAM used to loan SHERMAN a car to drive back and forth to work. He added that SHERMAN is the type of fellow who will work steady for four or five months without missing a day and then go off on a two weeks drunken binge. On two or three occasions, he took SAM MOONEY's car with him. As a result of this, SHERMAN did not have the use of MOONEY's car. (u)

CG T-36 related that the Villa Venice was bought approximately two years ago by MOONEY and/or the MEO's from one PAPPA BOUCHE (phonetic). He stated BOUCHE (phonetic) is known as a Frenchman and is very well liked. He added that BOUCHE was then operating a restaurant in Florida. CG T-36 stated that the Villa Venice now has a station wagon courtesy car which is driven by a young, tall, thin Negro approximately 25 years of age. (u)

Records of the Map Department, Cook County, 118 North Clark, Chicago, Illinois, made available by ROCCO TROCCOLI, Clerk, on July 9, 1958, reflect that the site of the Villa Venice, 2855 South Milwaukee Avenue, Northfield Township, is legally described as Assessor's Division, SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Lot 2, Sec. 19, T. 42, R. 12, consisting of 7.20 acres North of Road; and Assessor's Division, SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Lot 3, Sec. 19, T. 42, R. 12, consisting of .40 acres East of Gravel Road. The 7.20 acres described above is referred to as Item 1443, Vol. 131, of the Tax Warrant Books. The .40 acres described above is referred to as Item 1445, Vol. 131. (u)

Examination of the Tax Warrant Books for the years 1956 and 1957, under Item Number 1443 and 1445, Volume 131, reflect that taxes for these years were paid by JAMES MEO, 7219 West Lawrence, Norridge, Illinois. (u)
