called by the NMC and Dave ^{DR} Dellinger, Chairman of that organi-with an appeal "instead of a violent demand to desist." Dellinger stated that the Pentagon contended that there were only about 55,000 demonstrators; however, the NMC felt that the attendance was closer to 150,000. He went on to say that the demonstration was a "confrontation of friends" although there was inexcusable violence. He stated that he and Dagmar
