Subject: ~~David~~ <sup>Vasily</sup> KOSTENKO

Date of Information: February 1955

Pavel KOSTENKO told Source that he had been working as a Soviet agent for the past four years. KOSTENKO made this revelation prior to attempting to recruit Source to work for the Soviets. He said that his Soviet contact had questioned him about Source and was interested in Source's contacts with the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions (ICFTU) through Elizabeth PHILLIPS. KOSTENKO implied that Source would receive 8000 BF from the Soviet for a report on what he knew about PHILLIPS.

Elaborating on his contact with the Soviets, KOSTENKO said that he only met his Soviet contact once per month and was only asked for information about various persons. These contacts were always made out of doors and KOSTENKO said he was furnished with an itinerary to follow to the contact site.
