2. On 17 February LANSFURN/1 delivered an official LANSFURN report concerning the existence of two training camps in Algeria. One was said to be located in Bel Abbes, Algeria, and to be undertaking military training of Portuguese and Spanish Communists. The other was nearby and was a camp of the Algerian National Liberation Camp. The Bel Abbes camp was reported to have at least 300 trainees and to be under the command of Julio GONZALEZ, with Eloy GUTIERREZ acting as liaison officer. The report contains a detailed list of Cuban supplied armaments at the camp sufficient to outfit 2,500 men. SUB COMMANDER OF AN ARMY GROUP OF PORTUGUESE AND SPANISH COMMUNISTS RECEIVING CUBAN SUPPLIED ARMAMENTS

3. Lisbon Station is making the report of the training camp in Bel Abbes other LANSFURN/1 or Algeria Station. Although not able to locate "Bel Abbes," the Station finds "Bel Abbes" on its map at approximately 30 degrees north, 2.3 degrees west. Any confirmation of a military camp in this area, and clarification as to its relationship to the Iberian opposition, would be of great interest to Lisbon Station.
