2. A said that SCLC activities in Chicago were declining, but were not being wound up. B, C

Dr. King spent little time in Chicago and was more involved with the peace movement at present, ... said. Nevertheless, he and the others (all) remain solid supporters of King.

4. A

He felt that King sought at least constructive, positive projects, but he admitted that King's aims housing project in Chicago was impossible. The city had promised $8,000,000, when $80,000,000 would not be enough, and even the $8,000,000 had never actually been allocated, he said. In general, he felt the situation was frustrating and depressing and very gloomy in outlook.

7. -A- remained a strong admirer of Dr. Martin Luther King, who he felt had made many mistakes in his Chicago operations, but who nevertheless was a sincere leader who maintained his charisma over the black masses, despite the demagogic behavior of the leaders of the smaller black extremist groups.

In any case, strongly believed that King had the possibility of playing a future role of great importance in the black community.
