CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE BULLETIN

CONTENTS

1. North Vietnam - South Vietnam: Hanoi apparently renewing campaign for "neutralization" of South Vietnam. (Page 1)
2. Indonesia-Malaysia: Djakarta preparing to step up subversion against Malaysia. (TOP SECRET, DINAR) (Page 3)
3. East Germany - Czechoslovakia: East Germany's relations with Czechoslovakia apparently take further turn for worse. (SECRET KIMBO) (Page 4)
4. Notes: Cuba; Yemen; Italy; Communist China - Australia; Algeria. (Page 5)

NOTES

Cuba: Fidel Castro's two-hour speech of 23 November on President Kennedy's assassination reflects apprehension that US policy toward Cuba may become even tougher than in the past. He pointed out that President Kennedy's alleged promise not to invade Cuba has been strongly attacked by "reactionaries" and stated that the President's death could lead from a bad situation to a worse one. Meanwhile, the Cuban defensive military alert, ordered immediately after the President's death, remains in effect. (SECRET KIMBO)

Yemen: For the second time this month an Egyptian aircraft apparently has attacked Saudi territory near the Yemeni border. [redacted]

JFK Act 6 (1)(B)

[redacted] a small village was bombed and strafed on 21 November, and the Saudis have formally complained to the UN Observation Mission and to the US Embassy. The Egyptian attacks will probably increase Crown Prince Faysal's determination to procure a mercenary air force to defend Saudi Arabia after 4 January, when the latest extension of the UN Mission's mandate expires. Italy: (Premier-designate Moro expects that the proposed government's program will be approved by the directing bodies of the coalition parties at their meetings today. Party leaders could then begin negotiations over the composition of the cabinet, a job which may take the rest of the week. Socialist Party chief Nenni intends to force his party's acceptance of the program even though he is faced with a threat from the pro-Communist left wing to secede) (CONFIDENTIAL NO FOREIGN DISSEM)
