NOTE FOR THE FILE:

The attached document, subj: "Meeting of the President's Committee on the Warren Report, 27 October 1964" was approved for release, as sanitized, by the U.S. Secret Service on 2 February 1995.

It was sent to the FBI for coordination by Joe Murphy on 7 February 1995. Joe advised me on 26 March 1996 that we must continue to hold because the FBI is not yet into the microfilm documents.

The document is being treated as an "Unresolved Coordination" as of today.

IN THIS DOCUMENT

Dear Mr. Harrelson:

Reference is made to your letter, dated October 3, 1994, requesting this Service to review the enclosed documents in accordance with the JFK Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act).

This Service has reviewed the documents in question and has determined that eleven (11) of the documents may be released in full, insofar as Secret Service matters are concerned. The other three (3) of the documents reflect protective policies and techniques which are currently being utilized by this Service in its protective capacity. Consequently, it is recommended that you withhold portions of the documents, which have been highlighted in yellow, pursuant to Section 6, Postponement 5 of the JFK Act. Please be advised that the enclosed copy of the documents have been appropriately stamped.

If you have any comments and/or questions with respect to this reply, feel free to contact Latita Roseboro of my staff at 202-435-5838.

ATTN: Ms. Latita Roseboro

Dear Mr. Laska:

We find we must ask your assistance one more time in connection with ten documents from CIA's microfilm files responsive to the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992. All ten are from a file describing the work of the "President's Committee on the Warren Report," a Cabinet-level committee set up to act on the recommendations in the final report of the Warren Commission. A primary focus of this committee--which functioned from September to December 1964--was the Secret Service.

Mr. David Van Tassel of the National Security Council has indicated to us that the NSC will defer to your judgment on the release of this material. CIA will pose no objections to the declassification and release of all ten documents, so far as our equities are concerned. (We will be coordinating four of these items with other agencies concerned: the seventh item with the FBI; the ninth with the Department of State; [and the tenth and eleventh with the Department of the Treasury.] done, coordinated)

Dear Nina:

I am sorry, but I could not leave well enough alone. One of our reviewers has identified one more--possibly final--document (two pages) from our microfilm records which the Department should look at. This one is the minutes of the 24 November 1964 meeting of President Johnson's cabinet-level committee set up to act on the recommendations in the Warren Commission's final report. We have sent a copy also to the Secret Service. CIA has no objection to declassification and release. David Van Tassel of the National Security Council has indicated to us that he will defer to the judgment of State, the Secret Service, and CIA as to the release of this material. We don't believe this one will give you much trouble.

Please again give us your recommendations.

Thank you again and thanks for your forbearance.

IN THIS DOCUMENT

Dear Mr. Carver:

This responds to your separate requests of August 30, 1994 and October 5, 1994, for the review of documents originated by the Department of the Treasury subject to the John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, thereafter the JFK Act. We understand the material in question was located within CIA files and consists of an initial sixteen documents (92 pages) and an additional two documents (3 pages), respectively.

Department of the Treasury and U.S. Secret Service reviewers examined all of the material; results follow. In each instance, the enclosed documents have been marked to reflect Treasury's final determinations. Treasury file copies are not being retained.

August 30, 1994 batch - Twelve (12) documents have been declassified and/or determined to be releasable. The remaining four (4) contain information which reflects protective policies and techniques which are currently utilized by the U.S. Secret Service in its protective capacity. Consequently, we hold that certain information, identified in brackets on respective pages, is exempt from release under Section 6, Postponement item 5 of the JFK Act. The information must continue to remain classified while these protective policies and techniques are still relied upon.

October 5, 1994 batch - Both documents have been declassified and are releasable.

In the event you have any comments or questions with respect to this response, please contact Assistant Director (Physical Security), Robert A. McMenamin, on (202) 622-1120.

Sincerely,

Richard P. Riley

Dear Mr. Carver:

This responds to your letter of August 30, 1994 with respect to documents provided to Treasury for review under the John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992.

The materials in question, consisting of 16 documents and containing 92 pages, were forwarded to the Office of Security for appropriate action. We are the conduit for handling mandatory declassification review requests involving Treasury classified information. Significantly, some of the documents you provided to us have already been identified by the Archivist of the LBJ Library as being subject to the Act and are currently being examined.

A response will be forthcoming as soon as we have completed the necessary Treasury coordination. If you have any questions, please contact Robert A. McMenamin, Assistant Director (Physical Security) on (202) 622-1120.

Dear Mr. Bryant:

The Historical Review Group of the Central Intelligence Agency has two further documents to coordinate with you from among CIA's documents responsive to the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (PL 102-526). In winding up our review of microfilm records, we have identified the enclosed documents (3 pages) as having been originated in the Department of the Treasury or as containing equities of the Department.

Please evaluate these documents and give us your recommendation for their disposition, appending where necessary the appropriate grounds for postponement in accordance with Section 6 of the Act. Mr. David Van Tassel of the National Security Council has indicated to us that he will defer to your judgment (and that of the Secret Service, which is also coordinating with us on these documents) on the release of this material. CIA has no objections to declassification or release.

Thank you again.

Dear Mr. Carver:

This letter is in response to your John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Act referrals requesting this office to review relevant documentation.

Enclosed are the documents which were referred to this office for review. We have reviewed the referred documentation pursuant to the John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Act. Please be advised that the Secret Service has no objection to the release of information pertaining to this Service.

Please be advised that a review of the documents indicate there is some information which was furnished by the FBI. Please confer with FBI with regards to their agency's material. We have outlined FBI's information in pencil.

If you have any questions and/or comments, please feel free to contact Latita Roseboro of my staff at 202-435-9291.

Sincerely,

Melvin E. Laska

Attention: Ms. Latita Roseboro
Reference: Our letter to USSS dtd 20 Jul 93

Dear Mr. Miller:

The Historical Review Group of the Central Intelligence Agency is now in the final stages of preparing for delivery of CIA's documents responsive to the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, and we find we must ask you to conduct a supplementary coordination in this case.

In the final inspection of our relevant files before transmittal to the National Archives and Records Administration, we have identified one further document of six pages as having been originated by the Secret Service. A copy is enclosed.

Please evaluate this document and give us your recommendation for its disposition, either by affixing your stamp on the copy itself or by informing us in a separate message. If sanitization or postponement are required, please also append the grounds therefor in accordance with Section 6 of the Act. Given the late date of discovery, we cannot expect you to meet the deadline of 22 August stipulated in the Act, but we would request that you respond within three weeks of receipt.

Again, please call me at (703) 351-2805 if you have any questions regarding this document, and thank you.

Sincerely yours,

CIA SPECIAL COLLECTIONS
RELEASE IN FULL
2000

Dear Mr. Williams:

The Historical Review Group of the Central Intelligence Agency has been tasked with the declassification of CIA's documents sequestered during the investigations by the House Select Committee on Assassinations in 1976-78. In the course of our review, we have identified seven documents, totaling 48 pages, as having been originated by the Secret Service or as containing equities of the Service. Copies of these documents are enclosed.

Please evaluate these documents and give us your recommendation for their disposition, either by affixing your stamp on the documents themselves or by informing us in a separate message. If you find you must sanitize or postpone in full any of them, please also append the grounds for postponement in accordance with the John F. Kennedy Assassinations Records Collection Act of 1992. As the Act also requires a final deadline of 22 August 1993 for the transfer of all documents to the National Archives and Records Administration, we further request that you respond within three weeks of receipt of these documents.

Please call me at (703) 351-2805 if you have any questions regarding the selection or processing of these documents.

Sincerely yours,

John S. Carver
