

PH 92-444

T: Yeah.

B: ROXY ain't going to sell out because Apex is going to be in business for a long time. That's why I am saying talk to both of them. Now you take the best deal.

T: I am going to make him keep getting spots because as far as that, I can stop those spots overnight.

B: You can make him keep getting spots, but you want to know what's the best deal he can give you.

T: Well, ANG, that's what he said he would do.

B: That's the best he can do?

T: Yeah.

B: Well, now, talk to ROXY, Now ROXY don't come to see you. When you take a few spots off of him, he'll come and see you.

T: He's going to come down to see you or me, either one.

B: So somebody will come to see you. Now EDDIE WALKER, he didn't come and see me. But that is the story with EDDIE WALKER. Now, what else? Right now over there you were drunk.

COMMENTS ON THE ABOVE:

The foregoing conversation indicates that TONY (LNU), who according to PH 614-C-TE, is from Trenton, N. J., is either in the laundry business or is in a position to obtain stops for whatever laundry company gives him the best deal. Apparently, TONY's influence is in the Trenton area. References to APEX and ROXY are believed identified, respectively, as:

- 1) Apex Coat, Apron, Towel, and Linen Supply Company, Inc., 2305 North 8th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. - owned by LARRY MAZLOW.

PH 92-444

2) ROXY is ROCCO AULETTO, aka Roxy Allen, Camden, N. J., who was sentenced in connection with a theft from interstate shipment involving large amounts of Campbells Soup. For the information of Newark, PH 571-C* advised on January 22, 1962, that MAX "WILLIE" WEISBERG, PHTH, mentioned to him that a guy named ROXY, an Italian from Camden, N. J., a former boxer, who has been involved in the Campbell Soup scandal and got five years, is the "muscle" for Apex. Informant advised that WEISBERG said that MAZLOW helped ROXY's family while ROXY was in jail. He also said that there were two other men at Apex who have prison records.

The person referred to as EDDIE WALKER is believed to be BRUNO's associate EDWARD WALKER, Business Agent, Philadelphia Local 107, Teamsters Union. Apparently WALKER is the other party dealing with TONY in effort to obtain laundry stops. At this time WALKER is not known to be connected with any Philadelphia laundry.

PH 614-C-TE, who was present when TONY (LNU) began his discussion with ANGELO BRUNO and who was introduced to TONY, described TONY as a white male, in his late 50's or early 60's, 5'11", 215 pounds, with gray hair and receding hairline, light olive complexion, facial features - heavy looking, and with glasses. Informant also advised that prior to this occasion he never saw TONY but that he believes him to be from Trenton, N. J., because CHARLES COSTELLO, associate of ANGELO BRUNO, told informant that he was once in Trenton and TONY told him the names of the streets that he was driving on.

CONVERSATION CONTINUED

PART II:

B: Alright. Now, over there you were drunk, right? Because, if you wasn't, not that you were wrong in all you, you weren't wrong...you know?

E. MISCELLANEOUS OBSERVATIONS

1. Term "Capi" is known to be used as the short form of Caporegime.
2. Term "Avugad" is Sicilian jargon for lawyer.
3. Representando is the title used to designate the head of a particular family.
4. Amico Nostro translates as "Our Friend" or "A Friend of OURS." It is the term used to designate a person as a member of La Causa Nostra.
5. "The Commission" is the term used to designate the group of Representandi Officiali who act as the supreme governing body for La Causa Nostra.
6. ANGELO referred to JOE MAGGIO of Atlantic City, N. J., who formerly had a laundry. PH 614-C-TE advised that JOE MAGGIO is a first cousin of the late MICHAEL MAGGIO and was at one time in partnership with MIKE MAGGIO in the operation of the Maggio Cheese Company of Philadelphia and the King Laundry of Atlantic City, N. J. JOE MAGGIO was married to the sister of MIKE MAGGIO, which marriage caused considerable strife years ago and resulted in JOE MAGGIO's falling away from MIKE MAGGIO and his sons, PETER and MARIO, who now operate the Maggio Cheese Company. Informant stated that JOE MAGGIO is still living and resided in either Atlantic City, N. J., or Ventnor, N. J. He also added that JOE MAGGIO did not even attend the funeral of his first cousin and his wife's brother, MIKE MAGGIO, because of the family trouble years ago.
7. It has been noted that BRUNO stated that he "went and picked him up at the airport, people from the Commission introduced me to him because they knew him."

PH 92-444

New York Division advised Philadelphia by airtel dated June 20, 1962, that when CALOGERO SINATRA arrived from Italy at Idlewild Airport, he was met by ANGELO BRUNO, PASQUALE MASSI, and by four other individuals at the terminal. New York stated that they believed one of these four persons was PAUL GAMBINO, brother of CARLO GAMBINO. New York also advised that the individuals left the airport by using ANGELO BRUNO's automobile and by an automobile registered to PAUL GAMBINO.

Leads

NEWARK:

AT TRENTON, N. J.

1. Will identify TONY (LNU) from context of Part I and from description furnished by PH 614-C-TE; develop information through credit, criminal and indices checks and contacts with logical sources in Trenton area.

2. Will identify TONY's brother-in-law, JIMMY LNU; develop information through credit, criminal, indices checks and contacts with logical sources in Trenton area.

3. Will identify ED LNU, who is not known at Philadelphia and is probably from Trenton, N. J., inasmuch as he was present with MICHAEL TRAMANTANA, TONY and JIMMY; obtain background as indicated in other leads.

4. Attempt to determine whereabouts of JOE MAGGIO, first cousin of the late MICHAEL MAGGIO, and not JOE MAGGIO, MICHAEL MAGGIO's brother, who formerly resided in Wildwood, N. J.; consider feasibility of interviewing JOE MAGGIO along general lines in effort to determine the possibility of developing him as a top level informant.

PH 92-444

MIAMI:

AT MIAMI, FLA.

A copy of this airtel is being sent to Miami in view of FRANK AMATO's visit to ANGELO BRUNO.

NEW YORK:

AT NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

1. Will review the above and will suitably paraphrase its contents if it is utilized in report on the "Criminal Commission."

2. Will utilize this information concerning discipline of La Causa Nostra in your contacts with NY 3461-C-TE.

SAN FRANCISCO:

AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.

Will thoroughly review the above information for background information during your contacts with SF 2550-PC.

A copy of this airtel is being sent to those offices known to have Commission representatives in their area in order to further their understanding of the internal discipline of La Causa Nostra and the Criminal Commission.

BRUNO CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

FROHBOSE