Reurtel 5/25/62.

Referenced communication advised that an unknown individual will arrive in New York from Italy 6/15/62, and this unknown person would like to see "Paul and Gambino." In addition, you advised that Eat Massi of Camden, New Jersey, was also in conference with Angelo Bruno 5/24/62, and the unknown individual who is to arrive from Italy 6/15/62 was discussed.

You are to insure that both the Newark and New York Offices are completely aware of this information and that appropriate coverage is given this matter. The Bureau should be advised of all developments by teletype.

It would appear from referenced communication that the individual who is coming to New York could possibly be Joe Ida, who is presently residing in Italy.

Referenced communication also advises of a meeting held at 740 Christian Street, Philadelphia, on 5/24/62. Bruno, Massi, and other Philadelphia hoodlum characters were present at this meeting. This meeting points out the need for the establishment, if possible, of a highly confidential source at this location. You should give this matter complete consideration. Furnish the Bureau your comments regarding the possible establishment of such source at this location and if you feel same is practicable, submit request for survey authority.

Expedite submission of the information obtained regarding the visit of the unknown man from Italy to the U. S. on about 6/15/62.
