(S) [Austin Horn] CIA, advised the Liaison Agent on 5/21/65, that his Agency has been giving attention to actions which possibly might be taken by the U. S. Government to disrupt relations between Cuba and Russia. One of the ideas which is under consideration is an operation designed to convey the message to the Cubans that the USA and USSR have made a "secret deal" concerning Cuba. [Horn] made available the enclosed copy (S) of a blind memorandum describing a fabricated story which could fit into this plan. [Horn] explained that the objective would be to pass such a (S) story through available channels such as double agents. ~~(S)~~

[Horn] wanted to make it clear that CIA very definitely was not (S) passing this story through its sources and would not take any action unless the plan was clearly approved by State Department. CIA intends to have further discussions within the Agency and will then consult with State. In the meantime, CIA would be interested in receiving our comments or observations on the enclosure. In this connection, it should be noted that if the plan is approved, CIA hopes that (S) through one of our double agents the fabricated story possibly could be passed to some Cuban official at the United Nations. The Liaison Agent informed [Horn] that it should be clearly understood that the Bureau, at (S) this point, is not approving the plan and is not consenting to any participation. ~~(S)~~ (S) (U)

PER CIA

It is suggested that the following fabricated story be passed to a person with high-level contacts in Havana:

The USA is very much disturbed by UN entry into the Dominican problem, which sets an adverse precedent in the Latin American area, heretofore considered the sacrosanct province of the OAS.

The USSR has been jolted by the resolute and rapid action taken by the USA in the Dominican Republic with the announced objective of stemming the tide of Castroism. For the first time since the missile crisis, the USSR has seen tangible indications that the USA is not averse to invading a Caribbean island.

In view of these preoccupations of both the USA and the USSR, a tacit deal has come about:

(a) On its part the USA agrees that "socialism" be allowed to exist in Cuba, but without Fidel Castro, Raul Castro and Che Guevara; the USA would be willing to accept any other Cubans now in government positions; the USA is willing to make concessions (undetermined) elsewhere in the world.
