DECLASSIFIED BY SP8MAC/GCL
ON 10/11/94 (SIC)

Re New York letter to Bureau 4/10/56 captioned "GRACE HUTCHINS, SM - C" (Bufile 100-51757).

Reference letter set forth a letter dated March 9, 1956 from SUE WARREN, who gave her address as "Fujin Minshu Aurabu 7-12, Shiba - Shinbash, Minatoku, Tokyo, Japan."

According to files of Security Group, G-2, AFPE, Camp Drake, Japan, the Fujin Minshu Kurabu (Women's Democratic Club) is a Communist front national organization affiliated with the All-Japan Federation of Women's Organizations. It publishes an organ, the "Fujin Minshu Shimbun" (Women's Democratic Newspaper).

G-2 files reflect that about 15% of the total membership of the Women's Democratic Club are Japan Communist Party (JCP) members, and 20% can be classified as Communist sympathizers.

The Women's Democratic Club held its 10th National Convention at Tokyo on June 5-6, 1955.

Check of indices of the American Embassy, Tokyo, Consular Division on June 15, 1956; Headquarters, OSI, FEAR, Fuchu Air Station, Japan on May 28, 1956; and Security Group, G-2, AFPE on June 22, 1956 revealed no record of SUE WARREN.

On June 25, 1956, Mr. HISAO MAZAKI of the National Police Agency of Japan was asked to check records of his agency concerning subject.

It would be appreciated if the Bureau could furnish this office background concerning subject, including any aliases she is known to have used.

The Bureau may wish to furnish copies of this memorandum for information to the New York Office (100-42479; 100-13470).
