In parting, FONTANA was advised that with or without his cooperation, the FBI will continue to develop violations within its jurisdiction in New Kensington.

Confidential source MIKE ZERVOS, who is well acquainted with FONTANA, on 9/19/58, advised SAs DOUCE and FORSYTH that he considers FONTANA a hardened criminal and loyal bodyguard of GABRIEL MANNARINO who would stop at nothing, including murder, to maintain the power and influence of the MANNARINO organization in New Kensington. ZERVOS pointed out that in his judgment, FONTANA would never be foolish enough to merely assault any member of law enforcement because the person assaulted would probably be in a position to testify after recovery and possibly identify his attackers. ZERVOS pointed out, however, that in his opinion, FONTANA would, if circumstances warranted and if ordered by GABRIEL MANNARINO, carry out the assassination of any member of law enforcement, including Special Agents of the FBI.
