Internal Revenue Service Agents are of the opinion that any prosecution of ROSSELLI for income tax evasion will probably have to be made on the years 1957 and 1958, as at the present time, after examining his returns for 1959, 1960, and 1961, they can see no evidence of a violation.

Close liaison is being maintained by the Los Angeles Office with Internal Revenue Service.

On November 7 and 8, 1962, FBI reports in the ROSSELLI case prior to the report of SA HAROLD F. DODGE, dated September 12, 1960, at Los Angeles, were reviewed with SAs VERNON E. LYNCH and HELMER AKOLA, and they indicated, as is set out in Los Angeles airtel to the Bureau dated November 8, 1962, certain pages of these reports containing information regarding ROSSELLI's bank account and investment which they would like Photostats of. In Los Angeles airtel, it was stated that UACB by October 19, 1962, these Photostats would be made available to Internal Revenue Service.

During the first part of December, SAs LYNCH and AKOLA plan on making a trip to New Orleans to interview Mrs. PHIL KASTEL for information she may be able to furnish regarding the formation of the Tropicana Hotel, in which her deceased husband was active. They then intend to proceed to Miami, Florida, where they expect to interview JACK BROOKS and obtain papers and documents he might have concerning his business association with ROSSELLI, and also to interview an individual named LEO MALONY, who held the stock of PHIL KASTEL in his, MALONY's, name.
