RE: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE REQUEST
FOR LBJ LIBRARY DOCUMENTS

Dear Ms. Davis:

Reference is made to your letter dated May 25, 1976, captioned as above.

This is to confirm the conversation on May 26, 1976, between my liaison representative Robert L. Moore and Mr. Steven L. Skancke of the National Security Council (NSC) Staff. Your letter requested the views of the FBI as to whether documents enclosed with your letter, which were classified by or concerned the FBI, could be made available to the Senate Select Committee (SSC) Staff on a classified basis or made available for access on NSC premises. Mr. Moore advised Mr. Skancke that the following documents could be made available for delivery to the SSC Staff:

1. FBI Current Intelligence Analysis dated November 27, 1963, classified "Secret," (3 pages).
2. John Edgar Hoover letter to Honorable Marvin Watson dated December 2, 1966, classified "Top Secret," (1 page).

3. John Edgar Hoover letter to Mrs. Mildred Stegall dated January 3, 1968, classified "Secret," (1 page).
4. FBI Letterhead Memorandum (LHM) captioned "Training of Negroes in Cuba" dated January 3, 1968, classified "Secret," (2 pages).
5. John Edgar Hoover letter to Honorable Bill D. Moyers dated January 11, 1965, classified "Secret," (1 page).
6. John Edgar Hoover letter to Mrs. Mildred Stegall dated November 3, 1967, classified "Secret," (1 page).
7. John Edgar Hoover letter to Honorable Marvin Watson dated June 7, 1965, classified "Secret," (1 page).

Mr. Moore further advised Mr. Skancke that the following documents could be made available to the SSC Staff with appropriate deletions:

1. FBI LHM captioned "Alleged Cuban Plot to Assassinate Governor Roberto Sanchez Vilella of Puerto Rico," classified "Secret," (1 page). The words "inside Cuba" appearing on the second line of the first paragraph to be deleted.

Ms. Jeanne W. Davis

2. White House memorandum addressed to "Mr. President" signed "Marvin" dated November 6, 1967, unclassified (1 page). The words "18 Cuban-trained double agents against the Cubans" appearing in the second sentence of the last paragraph to be deleted. 21,16
3. FBI LHM captioned "Training of Negroes in Cuba" dated November 3, 1967, classified "Secret," (2 pages). The words "18 Cuban-trained intelligence agents as double agents or potential double agents against the Cubans" appearing in the third sentence of the last paragraph, page 2, to be deleted. 21,16
4. FBI LHM captioned "Plans to Assassinate Cuban Leaders," classified "Secret," (2 pages), dated June 4, 1965, with the word "Williamson" appearing on lines 3, 6 and 9 in the first full paragraph on page 2 to be deleted.

Mr. Skancke was also advised that the FBI LHM captioned "Reaction of Soviet and Communist Party Officials to the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy" dated December 1, 1966, classified "Top Secret," (6 pages), should not be delivered but could be made available to the SSC Staff for review on NSC premises. The White House memorandum prepared by "WJ:yb" dated November 24, 1963, was classified "Secret" on May 25, 1976,
