NATIONAL GUARD PARTY (NGP)
EXTREMIST MATTER - WHITE HATE GROUP

ReBUrep dated 3/17/75.

Authority is granted for your office to undertake active investigation of captioned organization at this time and to continue that investigation as long as the NGP involves itself in activities which, if uninterrupted, could result in possible violations of Federal statutes enumerated on page two of your report. That investigation should be conducted in accordance with instructions set forth in Section 122 of the Manual of Instructions pertaining to investigations of white hate groups.

You should insure the Bureau is kept apprised of all pertinent information developed in this matter in form suitable for dissemination on a timely basis. You should be particularly alert to the receipt of information concerning captioned organization's connections with the [Western Guard Party] in [Toronto, Canada,] and to the possibility the NGP may attempt to extend its influence to other sections of the United States.

Referenced report indicates the White Youth Alliance (WYA), an auxiliary of the captioned group, is made up of youths between ages 14 and 17 who are in basic agreement with the program of the NGP. You should undertake no investigation of that organization or its members at this time. You should, however, follow activities of that group in connection with the investigation of the NGP and through sources and informants of your office. Include pertinent data developed concerning the WYA in future communications for dissemination submitted in this matter.

Referenced report identifies the NGP's official publication, "Defiance," which allegedly was first issued in 12/74. Buffalo should arrange to obtain future copies of that publication for submission to FBIHQ together with appropriate analysis of their content and, where appropriate, recommended investigative action. This should be handled in accordance with instructions as set forth in Bureau letter to all offices dated 11/6/69 captioned "Black Nationalist Movement, Publications."

NOTE:

The NGP is a white hate group headquartered in Buffalo, New York, which is led by Karl Hand, Jr., a former member of the National Socialist White Peoples Party. The NGP group espouses an antiblack, anti-Jewish, anticommunist, and neo-Nazi philosophy and its leaders have been involved in violent activities in Canada and the Buffalo area directed against a minority group. Appropriate instructions being directed to the Buffalo Division. The Western Guard Party is a white hate organization active in Toronto, Canada, which has similar objectives to those of the NGP. FBIHQ previously authorized Buffalo Division to conduct a preliminary inquiry concerning the NGP. Referenced report contains results of same and requests Bureau authority to continue investigation.
