FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 4/4/73

BENNETT F. JOHNSON, Vice President, Stockman National Bank, Rushville, Nebraska (telephone 308-327-2412) provided the following information:

The financial transactions under the RICHARD WILSON administration have been no different than under any of the other Tribal administrations. In the past, each time a new Tribal administration takes office, the new administration has to borrow money to pay off old debts of the old administration. This was no different when WILSON took over as president of the Oglala Sioux Tribe (OST) on April 12, 1972. Also, the WILSON administration assumed loans which had been previously taken out by the ONE FEATHER administration. The total of these loans amounts to $119,000, with repayment scheduled as follows:

Date	Amount
March 1, 1973	$79,333.34
April 1, 1973	$13,222.22
May 1, 1973	$13,222.22
June 1, 1973	$13,222.22

It should be noted that the March 1 and April 1, 1973 payments on the aforementioned loan has not yet been received by the bank, as of April 3, 1973. This is the first time the OST has been delinquent in their payments on loans. The $119,000 was loaned to the OST by the Packers National Bank in Omaha, Nebraska through the Stockman National Bank, Rushville, Nebraska.

The treasurer of the OST, EMMA T. NIELSON, has authority through an OST resolution to borrow money from the Stockman National Bank whenever the Tribe needs funds. She is a very competent individual and possibly one of the better treasurers the Tribe has ever had. She can furnish more complete information concerning the financial transactions under the WILSON administration.

Concerning the diversion of federal and state payroll taxes of BIA and Tribal employees, JOHNSON stated ~~that this was highly unlikely.~~ During the ONE FEATHER
