CONFIDENTIAL

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

On March 10, 1967, a source advised that the YSA was formed during 1957, by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The source further advised that the YSA has recently become more open about admitting that it is the youth group of the SWP and that an SWP representative has publicly stated that the YSA is the SWP's youth group.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Rooms 532-536, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIX

COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIETNAM MADISON, WISCONSIN

A source on February 14, 1965 advised that a group informally known as the Ad Hoc Committee for Peace in Vietnam was registered as a student organization at the University of Wisconsin (UW), Madison, Wisconsin, on or about February 12, 1965 under the name of "Committee to End the War in Vietnam" (CEWV). Its purposes were stated generally as campaigning to bring an end to the war in Vietnam and it claimed to be a non-affiliated, independent local organization.

On November 29, 1966, a second source advised that the CEWV sponsored frequent protests directed against U.S. policy in Vietnam during the years 1965-1966. Robin David became chairman at the beginning of the 1966-1967 academic school year and received some notoriety when he led the CEWV in disruptive tactics during a speech by Senator Edward Kennedy at the UW, Madison, on October 27, 1966.

The second source also advised on November 29, 1966 that the CEWV has no permanent headquarters and meets at various locations on the UW campus, Madison, Wisconsin.

A third source advised that Robin David was a member of the New York local of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as of May 19, 1965.

A fourth source advised that Robin David was a member of the Young Socialist Alliance in Madison, Wisconsin as of January, 1967.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A characterization of the Young Socialist Alliance is attached.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), Page 1, Column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

On March 10, 1967, a source advised that the YSA was formed during 1957, by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The source further advised that the YSA has recently become more open about admitting that it is the youth group of the SWP and that an SWP representative has publicly stated that the YSA is the SWP's youth group.

The National Headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 532-536, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

On October 31, 1967, a second source advised that at the 22nd National Convention of the SWP held in New York City from October 26, 1967, to October 29, 1967, it was stated that the YSA remained as the main recruiting ground for new SWP members.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

stated that the Vietnam War was a racist war and that President Johnson was responsible for the death of GI's and not the Viet Cong.

A characterization of the YSA is attached as an appendix to this memorandum.

Source 5 advised on April 8, 1969, that MILES participated in the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and YSA Peace Rally and March, held in Chicago, Illinois, on April 5, 1969. This source stated that MILES was one of the main speakers at the Rally and that he was paid for his travel expenses in connection with this Rally.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Source 6, a representative of another Government Agency, which conducts intelligence type investigations, advised in July, 1969, that JOSEPH DARRYL MILES, Army Serial No. US 51674152, was active in an organization known as GI's United Against the War in Vietnam, at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Source 6 stated that during the past two months, MILES had been active in recruiting, organizing and leading activities of Active Duty GI's in a confrontation with Military Authorities at Fort Bragg. Source said MILES had received support from the SWP and the YSA and that on May 21, 1969, MILES met with FRED HALSTEAD at Fort Bragg. HALSTEAD was SWP Presidential Candidate in the 1968 National Elections.

Source 6 further advised that on May 23, 1969, Private MILES received a one-man levy from the Department of the Army, assigning him to Alaska. MILES charged that since assignments to Alaska are normally for an 18 month period, and he has approximately one year of active duty remaining, the Army was harassing him for his anti-Vietnam War activities.

DEMONSTRATIONS, APRIL, 1970

Source 7 advised on January 12, 1970, that JOE WITKIE, Anchorage, Alaska, was named among Alternate Delegates to the YSA National Committee at their 9th National Convention held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, during the period December 27, 1969, to December 30, 1969.

Source 8 advised on May 11, 1970, that JOSEPH D. MILES presently resides with his wife, MATILDE JANE MILES, nee ZIMMERMAN, at 4323 Thompson Avenue, Apartment 24, Anchorage, Alaska.

Source 8 advised on November 12, 1966, that at a closed membership branch meeting of the SWP-New York Local (SWP-NYL), held on October 22, 1966, at 873 Broadway, New York City, it was announced that MATILDE ZIMMERMAN, who had joined the YSA a year ago in Madison, Wisconsin, had applied for membership in the SWP. This source advised as of January 28, 1969, that MATILDE ZIMMERMAN was a member of the SWP-NYL. According to this source, ZIMMERMAN, as of September 22, 1969, was a transferee out of the SWP-NYL to Anchorage, Alaska.

A characterization of the SWP-NYL is attached as an appendix to this memorandum.

Source 9 advised that on December 10, 1969, a press conference was held by the YSA at the Ambassador Hotel, Washington, D. C., and during this conference, a list of YSA State Chairmen was made available. This list disclosed that MATILDE MILES, 4323 Thompson Avenue, #24, Anchorage, Alaska, was State Chairman of the YSA in Alaska.

Source 8 further advised that on May 21, 1970, MILES received a letter from the YSA National Committee, Washington, D. C., advising that since residents of Alaska are normally 12 months travel time to and from the YSA National Committee of active duty personnel, the YSA was requesting MILES for his anti-war activities.

the Summer of 1967; and extensive travel in Europe, Southeast Asia, and the East and Central Africa. She also has stated that she can speak Italian, Swahili, Portuguese, and French. She and JOSEPH DARRYL MILES, a Negro, were married on January 12, 1969, at the home of her parents in Voorheesville, New York. They currently reside at 4323 Thompson Avenue, Apartment 24, Anchorage, Alaska. JOSEPH MILES is presently assigned as a Supply Clerk with the Headquarters and Headquarters Company, United States Army Alaska, Fort Richardson, Alaska. Mrs. MILES furnished information on November 6, 1969, that she is employed as a Research Analyst by the Community Enterprise Development Corporation, and is writing a history of the Rural Co-Operative Movement in Alaska and doing supplemental research on the traditional Alaskan economy.

Source One advised on November 20, 1969, that MATILDE MILES was then employed with the Community Enterprise Development Corporation, 503 West Northern Lights Boulevard, Anchorage, Alaska. Source stated this Corporation is funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity, out of Washington, D. C.

Source Two advised on November 12, 1968, that at a closed membership branch meeting of the SWP-New York Local (SWP-NYL) held on October 22, 1968, at 873 Broadway, New York City, it was announced that MATILDE ZIMMERMAN, who had joined the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) a year ago in Madison, Wisconsin, had applied for membership in the SWP. The source advised as of January 28, 1969, that MATILDE ZIMMERMAN was a member of the SWP-NYL. According to this source, ZIMMERMAN, as of September 22, 1969, was a transferee out of the SWP-NYL to Anchorage, Alaska.

Characterizations of the SWP-NYL and the YSA are attached as an Appendix to this Memorandum.

Source Three advised on February 25, 1969, that MATILDE ZIMMERMAN was National Secretary of the GI Civil Liberties Defense Committee (GI CLDC).

Source Two advised on November 25, 1969, that the GI CLDC was formed in the Fall of 1968, under the domination and control of the SWP and its youth affiliate YSA. Its stated purpose is to solicit contributions and provide legal counsel and publicity for GIs allegedly harassed by military authorities for expressing themselves on social issues, including and especially the Vietnam war.

The SWP and its youth group are actively engaged in generating support for massive protest demonstrations against United States policy in Vietnam. SWP interests in this area have been extended to include military personnel who are encouraged to participate in the so-called anti-war movement.

The GI CLDC furnishes active GI opponents of United States Vietnam Policy with the hope of a successful legal defense in the event military disciplinary action is taken against them as a result of protest activities. The SWP also hopes that a number of GIs will be recruited into the Party.

The GI CLDC leases an office at Room 836, 41 Union Square, New York City, but much of its work is done at SWP Headquarters, 873 Broadway, New York City.

Source Four advised that on December 10, 1969, a press conference was held by the YSA at the Ambassador Hotel, Washington, D. C., and during this conference a list of YSA State Chairmen was made available. This list disclosed that MATILDE MILES, 4323 Thompson Avenue, Number 24, Anchorage, was State Chairman of the YSA for Alaska.

Source Five advised on December 9, 1968, that JOE MILES attended the Eighth National Convention of the YSA at Chicago, Illinois, from November 28, 1968, to December 1, 1968. On November 30, 1968, a GI panel consisting of ex-GIs and active duty GIs was held. One of the speakers was JOE MILES, who admitted being a member of the YSA and stated that the Vietnam War was a racist war and that President JOHNSON was responsible for the deaths of GIs and not the Viet Cong.

Source Six advised on April 8, 1969, that MILES participated in the SWP and YSA Peace Rally and march held in Chicago, Illinois, April 5, 1969. This source advised that MILES was one of the main speakers at the Rally and that he was paid to cover his travel expenses in connection with this Rally.

Source Seven advised on January 12, 1970, that JOE MILES, Anchorage, Alaska, was named among alternate Delegates to the YSA National Committee at their 9th National Convention held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, during the period December 27, 1969, to December 30, 1969.

Source Eight advised on February 24, 1970, that MATILDE MILES received a contract from the University of Alaska to instruct an Afro-American History Course from January 26, 1970, to May 1, 1970. This course was to be directed through the Anchorage Community College Branch of the University of Alaska, and one section of this course was to be taught at the Orion Junior High School on Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska, which school is utilized by the Elmendorf-Fort Richardson Branch of the University of Alaska. This source advised it was his understanding that the Military disapproved of MATILDE MILES teaching on Elmendorf Air Force Base, and consequently, the course scheduled to be taught at Orion Junior High School was transferred to a high school in Anchorage. Source stated that Mrs. MILES objected to this transfer and submitted her resignation on January 27, 1970. In her letter of resignation, she reportedly made the following statement:

"It seems to me that the administration of Anchorage Community College has displayed a serious lack of professionalism in its recent handling of this course. I was frankly astonished to learn last week that one section of the course had been moved across town from Elmendorf Air Force Base to West High School, upon the insistence of the Air Force for obscure reasons of 'security'. While it seemed conceivable that the Air Force

"might regard the history of black America as too dangerous or subversive for the pristine halls of Orion Junior High School, it did not seem possible that an accredited academic institution would accede to such a demand without embarrassment."

The February 1, 1970, issue of the "Anchorage Daily News", a newspaper of general distribution, published at Anchorage, Alaska, contains an article on Page 1, written by STEPHEN BRENT, captioned "Air Force Won't Allow Mrs. Miles on Elmendorf". This article states in part as follows:

"There probably aren't more than a dozen history Ph.ds in Alaska and it's safe to say that none of them are more qualified than a cute and perky young lady named Matilda Miles.

"It is also safe to guess that any except her would be free to teach at the University of Alaska center on Elmendorf Air Force Base.

"MRS. MILES, the Air Force holds, is objectionable for security reasons. The Air Force doesn't say what the reasons are, or even admit that it has any objections. Yet it is clear that some time between registration two weeks ago and the start of classes last week somebody in the Air Force quietly requested the university to boot her out. And the university did just that, without asking any questions or lifting a finger in Mrs. Miles' defense."

"Her husband, Joe, was a leader in the National Black Anti-War, Anti-Draft Union until June, 1968--when he was drafted. Then at Ft. Jackson, S.C., and Ft. Bragg, N.C. respectively, he organized with considerable success chapters of GIs United Against the War in Vietnam. Today, a year and a half later, Miles is a private E2. But his record is unblemished."

"LAST JULY Miles was transferred to Ft. Richardson, where he is now a supply clerk. In October, Mrs. Miles became a substitute political science instructor for the university at its Elmendorf branch."

"BY ANY standard, Mrs. Miles is unusually qualified. After earning her doctorate she spent a year teaching in

CONFIDENTIAL

MATILDE JANE MILES

"Tanzania. Last year she taught at St. John's University in New York City. At the same time she wrote a teachers guide in Afro-American studies for the New York State Education Department.

"Registration came and went. Mrs. Miles recalls:

"I was all set to give these two classes and very excited about it. A week ago Thursday I learned that the Elmendorf class had been changed to West High School. I said that was impossible. I said that's extraordinarily inconvenient for me because I live in Mountain View, and that I was sure it would be more inconvenient for the servicemen."

"LAST TUESDAY, Mrs. Miles checked with the registrar and found she had 28 students in the merged class. But she also found that nobody told the Community College students that their class would, in fact, be at West High School. At that point Mrs. Miles decided to cancel out altogether.

"She went to class and told the dozen or so students who managed to find it that, 'I couldn't teach under these conditions. I had too much respect for them and the course. I think the students understood and agreed.'"

"And Mrs. Miles says, 'The whole idea that Afro-American history is dangerous--well it's true. If you go into it, you of necessity take on some of the sacred cows of American history. But that doesn't mean it shouldn't be done.

"But the idea that this is a security risk is patently absurd. They seem to be afraid that if someone should talk about Nat Turner, Martin Luther King and Malcolm X in the hallowed halls of Orion Junior High School, somehow that is going to bring down the school.'"

WILLIAM KELLY, Community Relations Coordinator, Greater Anchorage Area Borough School District, Anchorage, Alaska, advised on February 17, 1970, that JON BUCHHOLDT from the Community Action Agency, had recently introduced him to MATILDE MILES and had described her as being well qualified to coordinate a black studies program. KELLY stated that Mrs. MILES subsequently appeared before the School Board and furnished her views in regard to the black studies program.

KELLY further advised that he had read an article which appeared in the "Anchorage Daily News" concerning Mrs. MILES not being permitted to teach at Elmendorf Air Force Base in connection with her position with the Anchorage Community College. KELLY stated that after this article appeared in the "Anchorage Daily News", BUCHHOLDT contacted him and advised that he (BUCHHOLDT) had released this article to BRENT of the "Anchorage Daily News".

Source Eight advised on February 24, 1970, that many copies of the following letter, dated February 16, 1970, from JON BUCHHOLDT, Executive Director, Greater Anchorage Area Community Action Agency, to the President and faculty of the University of Alaska, had been left at the Anchorage Community College, which is a branch of the University of Alaska:

Gentlemen:

It has been over a week since the Anchorage Daily News revealed that Mr. Gene Laurent bowed to military pressure to prevent Matilde Zimmermann Miles from teaching a Black history course offered by the University of Alaska in the evening at Orion Jr. High School located at Elmendorf Air Force Base. This meek acquiescence and compliance to military intervention raises several moral questions which I have not heard raised by members of the academic community, questions that I regard to be fairly essential and critical to the life and freedom of a university; questions relating to the freedom to teach and the right to learn; questions involving the development of academic freedom in America.

The interdependence between the university's upper division evening program in Anchorage and the military complex here is not necessarily a bad thing. But interdependence often results in a degree of comfort which lulls good people into doing bad things. In this case, apparently, Mr. Laurent, administrator of the University's Anchorage "on-base" program, who lives in "on-base" quarters, responded to the request of military authorities to transfer Matilde Miles' class off-base. Apparently she was not acceptable to the military authorities for reasons which they have never made clear. Mr. Laurent accommodated these military authorities by transferring Matilde Miles' class from Orion Jr. High School to West High School. Most of the upper division evening instruction is conducted on Elmendorf for the reason that most of the students in these courses are military personnel. The whole program began as an accommodation to the military who wanted to provide an academic "bootstrap" opportunity to military personnel and their families. While a large number of students in the upper division evening courses are civilians, most are still military, and it causes considerable inconvenience to military students living on base to drive all the way to West High School. For this reason, few followed Mrs. Miles' class to West High School, and when she met the class she told a few remaining students she could not continue to teach for a university that would yield to military intervention, and sacrifice prerogatives of academic freedom.

Mrs. Miles is probably the only person in Alaska qualified to teach Afro-American history. She has specialized in the development of Black studies curriculums; developed that being used by the state of New York in state-controlled schools. Like many of you, she has been active in her dissent against the war in Viet Nam and is a prominent member of the Peace Movement. She is the wife of Pvt. Joe Miles, a soldier serving at Fort Richardson. Pvt. Miles has also been active in his dissent against the war in Viet Nam, and has been an active proponent of the introduction of traditional American democratic processes into the military services. Pvt. Joe Miles is Black. Matilde Miles is white.

Against this background, it is plain to me that this incident cannot be dismissed as merely a flap over the inconvenient transfer of a class from one facility to another. The American military establishment is the last bastion of self-righteous institutionalized racism. This suggests one motivation. Matilde Miles' dissent against the war in Viet Nam suggests another. Whatever the motivation on the part of the military authorities, its crude and insensitive intervention was, at least, characteristic, and suggests too broad a program of social and political reform to be undertaken successfully by any of us here in Alaska. Less understandable and characteristic is the willingness on the part of the University to tolerate this kind of intervention in its programs, and assault on one of its teachers. Having started, when should this kind of intervention stop? Which other courses are you willing to see proscribed from the university's on-base program? What other teachers are you willing to see characterized through unsupported allegations as security risks, or otherwise unfit to teach in the university's on-base program?

As a leader in the Community Action Program, it is my job to lead the poor to acquire, through involvement in our democratic processes, the power to overcome corporately and individually the problems of poverty and to win for themselves equity, education and opportunity. Many with whom we work are alienated, defeated people whom we must convince can function powerfully and effectively in our democratic society. For the poor, as for all of us, the university is a supreme symbol of learning and teaching authority, and of the efficacy and opportunity of education. If the University of Alaska cannot guarantee for itself, its students and its teachers, freedom to teach and to learn in our American democratic society, what chance do poor people have for equity?

But, I do not believe that you are powerless. I believe that the university is strong enough to protect its academic freedom and the right of all Alaskans to teach or learn whatever, wherever. I believe that the university's failure in the Matilde Miles affair grew out of a comfortable and congenial relationship with the military that dulled the sensitivities of some and the sensibilities of others. I believe that care should now be taken to see to it that damage that has been done is mended, and that this never happens again. I am however, disturbed by the silence from the academic community. Perhaps, not knowing the background, the faculty of the University of Alaska did not appreciate the significance of the Matilde Miles incident. I am hoping that recognizing it now the administration and faculty of the University of Alaska will erect systems to assure that there will be no repetition. This problem is one that should be attended by the A.A.U.P. Some day America will be able to deal effectively with the attitudes that cause the military authorities to intervene as they did, but if we are to successfully fight for these reforms that are so obviously needed, we need a strong university, and the freedoms that it strengthens and perpetuates.

IF YOU ARE NOT Satisfied - 9-2-68

NATIONAL PEACE ACTION COALITION
(NPAC)

On October 7, 1970, a source made available a copy of "An Open Letter to All College Students" from the National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC) dated October 6, 1970, which self-described the NPAC as an umbrella organization formed at the Student Mobilization Committee National Emergency Conference Against Cambodia-Laos-Viet Nam War held at Cleveland, Ohio, on June 19-21, 1970, to unite all antiwar forces in the struggle to immediately end United States involvement in Southeast Asia. One aim of the NPAC is to gain the support of labor forces.

NPAC Headquarters is located at 2102 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, with branch offices located in major United States cities.

A second source, on October 11, 1970, made available a copy of a paper entitled "Organizing Local Peace Action Coalitions," published by the NPAC, 2102 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland. The paper states that the basic objective of the NPAC is to involve masses of people, including labor unions, GIs, and the black community, in the struggle to end United States intervention in Indochina through orderly and peaceful tactics. These tactics include building mass demonstrations and national conferences, distributing leaflets, selling literature, organizing forums and fund-raising activities, and testifying at state legislature hearings.

A third source, on September 1, 1970, advised the NPAC was formed and made operational by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The NPAC is heavily influenced by SWP leadership nationally and is a recruiting ground for this organization.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

It was indicated that a security flash notice had been placed in the Bureau's Identification Division. However, records of the Identification Division fail to contain any record of the placing of a security flash notice. A check of AN's files will likely reveal that either no effort was ever made to place such a flash notice or, if effort was made by use of an FD-165, it was returned to AN with advice that flash was not placed because fingerprints of subject were not found in the Identification Division.

Recipients should appropriately note in their files the above. AN should insure that in the future FD-123s are executed accurately.

BS, in its further investigation of subject, should be alert for the availability of fingerprints which will enable you to take appropriate action to place a flash notice. Also, subject's employment was indicated as unknown when origin was changed. BS should continue efforts to ascertain employment and thereafter submit FD-122.

MATILDE ZIMMERMAN

I. BACKGROUND

BS T-1 advised on August 31, 1972, that Matilde Zimmerman arrived at San Diego, California, and since that date has been attending meetings of the San Diego Branch - Socialist Workers Party (SDB-SWP) and is the organizer of this branch.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

BS T-1 further advised subject presently resides at 4903½ 51st Street, San Diego, California.

Matilde Zimmerman was employed as a secretary-typist for this company from September 4, 1972 to November 8, 1972, and was discharged on the latter date. According to Padro, Zimmerman was a trouble maker and caused a great deal of dissention among the other employees. Zimmerman was not satisfied with the wages she was getting nor the fringe benefits and made her feelings known to other employees in the company, causing them to feel that they too were not getting just compensation.

According to Padro, no formal application was filled out by Zimmerman, however, she stated that she had come from New York City, New York, to San Diego, California, and was previously married to a colored school teacher who teaches in a private progressive school in Los Angeles.
