The 12/3/65 issue of "The Daily Illini", University of Illinois newspaper, on Page 3, reported that University student workers are asking for volunteers to spend Christmas vacation registering Negro voters in large Southern cities. Sponsoring organization is SCLC, which directed Illini-Alabama Project in registering local Negroes in Green County, Alabama, during the summer of 1965. Illini-Alabama Project was organized by McKinley Presbyterian Foundation at University of Illinois. Above article urged interested students to attend preliminary meeting 12/14/65 at above foundation. A day of orientation for volunteers from across country will be held in Atlanta on 12/21/65, but attendance is not mandatory. Workers will then disperse to various Southern cities and live with local people, who will furnish room and board. Workers are urged to spend at least seven days on this project.

A source furnished the following information to a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on February 19, 1968:

This source advised that he and his wife were in San Juan, Puerto Rico from December 2 - 15, 1967. He stated that the last of the last week of his trip, around December 13, 1967, he was sitting in the lobby of the Holiday Inn, half asleep and overheard a conversation, in English, between two Negro couples.

This source advised that it appeared that the couples had prearranged plans to meet at the Holiday Inn, possibly to eat, and source does not believe that they were registered, as he did not see them before or after.

The source said that from the conversation, at least one couple appeared to be from California, as they were commenting and comparing Governor Reagan to the former Governor Brown.

Source could recall no descriptive information concerning one of the couples, but he stated that the man who did most of the talking was approximately 6'3" to 6'4" in height, and had on a black hat that flopped down on one side. The woman with him was extremely well dressed, short and heavy set.

The Negro man doing the talking stated a Negro, supposedly an associate of Martin Luther King, Jr., and formerly an open advocate of violence, was to "hit" King during the Washington March this spring, so as to place the blame on a white man in the march. By "Hit", the source took this as to kill King. This incident was to be used to incite full scale rioting.

This source advised that he had not wanted to get involved, thus the delay in reporting this matter to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He stated that no one else overheard the conversation.
