CONFIDENTIAL

Source Number One, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised of the following information relating to Martin Luther King, Jr.'s appearance at Grosse Pointe High School, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, on March 14, 1968:

King's appearance was arranged and sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council. Prior to and during King's appearance, approximately 200 pickets from Breakthrough demonstrated in front of Grosse Pointe High School.

Source Number Two, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that Breakthrough is an ultra-conservative group under the direction of Donald Lobsinger, which group passes out literature and demonstrates against various left wing as well as Communist sponsored affairs held in the Detroit area.

Source Number One stated King's speech dealt primarily with the future integration in the United States. He continually stressed his position of non-violence and elaborated at length on the social problems facing the Negro in America today.

During the course of the speech King, in passing, briefly mentioned his plans for a Washington, D.C. camp-in in April, 1968. He stated he wanted it understood his plan is not to "tie up and shut down" the City of Washington, D.C., but he is using this action to "dramatize the plight of the poverty stricken Negro". He did not further elaborate nor give any detailed plans for the recruiting or the techniques he would be using to bring about success in this project.

During King's speech Donald Lobsinger, supra, was ejected from the meeting because of his heckling of King. He referred to King as a "traitor" because of his views on the conduct of the Vietnam war. Also two or three other individuals allegedly affiliated with Breakthrough, were escorted from the meeting for heckling and causing a disturbance. The individuals ejected were not permitted to re-enter the meeting.

Source advised that King was warmly received by those present which numbered in excess of 2,500 people. He stated the group was composed of predominately white people with a smattering of Negro people in attendance.

Source Number One further added that other than the above minor disturbances, King's appearance at Grosse Pointe High School was without serious incident.

Dr. King and SCLC—Powerful Action for Change

Everybody knows Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., but what about the organization he leads—the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, also called SCLC? Without the staff and supporters of SCLC, Dr. King always says, he could never have reached the position he holds today.

Here are some facts about SCLC:

- SCLC, now 11 years old, was founded in 1957 after the Montgomery Bus Boycott of 1955-56, which was led by SCLC's top officers, Dr. King, the President, and Dr. Ralph D. Abernathy, Vice President & Treasurer.
- SCLC is known for aggressive nonviolent action, such as the Birmingham Movement of 1963, the Selma March of 1965, and its year's Poor People's Campaign in Washington.
- SCLC has worked closely with other human rights organizations. For example, SCLC's leaders helped organize the support student sit-ins, and SCLC provides help to many civil rights causes.
- SCLC carries out quiet programs of community leadership training, economic development, and voter registration and political education.
- SCLC staff organizers have worked in every Southern state and in numerous Northern cities. For the Poor People's campaign, staff members are assigned in 10 cities and five rural areas.
- SCLC has about 270 local Affiliate chapters across the nation. These Affiliate chapters share SCLC's basic beliefs in human rights and nonviolent action, and many of them have taken on the community-wide.

SCLC is a non-profit organization supported by thousands of people from all walks of life—including churches and other local groups—by foundations, by artists and public figures who believe in our work. SCLC has always welcomed the active participation and financial aid of people from all faiths, colors and nationalities.

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference, based in Atlanta, Ga., has grown in 11 years into a national organization. At present SCLC has about 100 staff members.

SCLC policy is determined by an Executive Board of Directors, experienced men and women who follow the philosophy and practice of direct action for peaceful social change. Dr. King, Dr. Abernathy and Rev. Andrew Young, Executive Vice-President, carry out the board policy, and an Executive Staff is responsible for following this policy in SCLC programs.

The main activities of SCLC now include:

- THE POOR PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN FOR JOBS OR INCOME, which will begin in Washington, D.C., in April. This campaign will involve thousands of poor people in massive protests, expanding in numbers and militancy if necessary to make the nation respond to the evils of poverty and racism in America.

VOTER REGISTRATION AND POLITICAL EDUCATION, to develop political power so that poor people, including the oppressed black people, will be represented by their own leaders and will reform the systems that exploit them.

OPERATION BREADBASKET, SCLC's economic development program which began in the South five years ago and is now organized in a number of big cities. Breadbasket not only produces new and better jobs for Negroes but also works for total economic control and development within the black community. SCLC BreadBasket is now growing into a nationwide network of economic power.

THE CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION PROGRAM, which trains local adults in community leadership, education, human rights, and citizenship responsibilities, economic development, and Negro heritage. Since it became an SCLC program in 1963, CEP has trained more than 100 Southern adults who went on to reach 25,000 others in local citizenship schools.

URBAN LEADERSHIP TRAINING. This year SCLC has a new program for developing community leadership in the ghettos of 15 of the largest cities. Ten ministers from each of the cities have been recruited for development of their leadership qualities and preparing active programs to better the lives and conditions of the poor people in their neighborhoods.

AFFILIATE ACTIVITIES. The 270 local Affiliates of SCLC not only support this organization, but also work on their own community projects, such as citizenship schools, voter registration, improvement of education, Operation Breadbasket, and direct action against racial injustice.

NONVIOLENT EDUCATION AND ACTION. SCLC staff and Affiliates continue to teach both the philosophy of nonviolence and the power of direct nonviolent action for human rights. For example, at this time the SCLC organizers in the Poor People's Campaign are mobilizing poor people for massive nonviolent action in Washington this spring.
T-1 stated that during the week long seminar there were the usual speeches. Dr. Ralph D. Abernathy was presented by Reverend Joe Lowery and Abernathy, greeted the ministers. Reverend T. Y. Rogers gave a resume of the past year's achievements of MLTP in connection with "Operation Breadbasket". Dr. Gardner Taylor of Brooklyn, New York, led the memorial service for the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on Monday night, September 23, 1968. During the week, Dr. Glasco Wilmore of the United Presbyterian Church spoke on making a "positive" change in history. Dr. C. S. Spivey of the National Council of Churches spoke on the mission of the church to transform our misguided society. Dr. Lucious Walker told the group that the church is the most powerful agency to change conditions in ghetto areas. Dr. Archie Hargroves of the Chicago University said that the mission of the church was to support the disherited people in their everyday problems. Reverend Robert Rhodes and Sampson Ranschumbush said that America is still deeply involved in colonialism.

T-1 stated that during the week there was much inter SCLC politicking and bickering among the ministers; however, there was also a great transfer of ideas and rumors. T-1 stated that although there has been no official confirmation, most of the ministers who attended this seminar suspect that the SCLC officials in Atlanta, Georgia, have set up some sort of security force to protect the leadership and to gather intelligence information on hate groups and Government intelligence agencies. T-1 stated that he could not develop any positive details to support this rumor.

In regard to the SCLC leadership, T-1 stated that most of the ministers were loyal to Ralph Abernathy; however, they all fully realized that Abernathy is not a good administrator and cannot compare with Martin Luther King, Jr., as an organizer. The major criticism of Abernathy was that at the seminar and on several occasions previous to the seminar, Abernathy has spoken of visions which have come to him. T-1 stated that many of the national leaders who attended the seminar were of the opinion that Abernathy should not speak in public about his visions.

Confidential Informant T-1 said that there were two major decisions made by SCLC at this seminar:

1. The MLTP is too disorganized at this point to conduct a nation-wide economic boycott; however, by this time next year MLTP should be ready and probably the first nation-wide economic boycott will have as its target the A & P Food Chain Stores.

2. MLTP leaders in all major United States cities have been instructed to qualify their churches as non-profit sponsoring agents to secure United States Government funds and build Government-financed housing projects.

In regard to the SCLC leadership, T-1 stated that most of the ministers were loyal to Ralph Abernathy; however, they all fully realized that Abernathy is not a good administrator and cannot compare with Martin Luther King, Jr., as an organizer. The major criticism of Abernathy was that at the seminar and on several occasions previous to the seminar, Abernathy has spoken of visions which have come to him. T-1 stated that many of the national leaders who attended the seminar were of the opinion that Abernathy should not speak in public about his visions.

Confidential Informant T-1 said that there were two major decisions made by SCLC at this seminar:

1. The MLTP is too disorganized at this point to conduct a nation-wide economic boycott; however, by this time next year MLTP should be ready and probably the first nation-wide economic boycott will have as its target the A & P Food Chain Stores.

2. MLTP leaders in all major United States cities have been instructed to qualify their churches as non-profit sponsoring agents to secure United States Government funds and build Government-financed housing projects.

A confidential source advised on August 28, 1968, that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) conducted a National Committee of Inquiry at Chicago, Illinois at the Kubash Avenue YMCA, 3752 West 17 Avenue, August 24, 1968. The committee convened at 1 P.M. and lasted until approximately 4 P.M. There were approximately 100 members and 75 observers in attendance. RICHARD HATCHER, Mayor of Gary, Indiana, was Chairman of the meeting.

HATCHER stated the purpose of the meeting was to coordinate the political situation and its effect on the black people. He further advised that nothing discussed at this meeting would be released to the press except when approved by the Executive Committee. HATCHER introduced the key speaker in the person of the Reverend JESSE JACKSON, Director of Operation Breadbasket of Chicago. Other celebrities who appeared were HARRY BELAFONTE, Congressman JOHN CONYERS of Detroit and CARRICK BALL ADDERLEY, a jazz musician.

Source advised that JESSIE JACKSON, in a prepared presentation, stated that the reason for boycotts of the A & P Stores is that these stores located in the ghetto areas sold inferior products and did not have any black personnel high up in the executive branches of the corporation. He gave a list of local Chicago black merchants where the black community should buy groceries, which list is attached hereto.

Source advised that the next person to speak to the group was CANNONBALL ADDERLEY, a renowned jazz musician.
He spoke of black culture and how the white man has looked upon the black man as a comedian and was always kept around to keep 'him happy, to act as a clown and was one that the white man could always call on when he wanted to be entertained. ADDERLEY talked about teaching black culture in public schools and he gave a resume of background of the Negroes in a white society.

Source advised that JOHN CONYERS, Congressman from Detroit, spoke about the reasons why the black community should not try to beat the present structure of the political system in America and how the black community could be part of it. He read to the group a press release which was prepared by the Executive Committee of the National Committee of Inquiry, a copy of which is attached.

Source advised that HARRY BELAFONTE, singer, spoke and gave the background of the National Committee of Inquiry.
He stated that the organization is a part of the SCLC and was organized by the late MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. approximately five months before he was assassinated. The purpose of this committee was to look into the national political system and try to change it for the betterment of the black people and form a black political coalition. A program for the National Committee of Inquiry Committee to look into for the forthcoming year is attached hereto.

Source advised the only activities conducted Sunday, August 25, 1968 by members of SCLC, was a demonstration led by an unidentified member at an A & P Store at 35th near Indiana Avenue. Approximately 50 members of SCLC originally participated in this march, however, as the demonstration lasted over a two and a half hour period, approximately 150 people gathered. There were no incidents.

Source advised on Monday, August 25, 1968, that the Reverend RALDPE D. ABERNATHY held a meeting at the Robert Motel, Rooms 223 and 224 which were adjoining rooms. This meeting started at approximately 8 P.M. and lasted to approximately 8:30 P.M. After this meeting was over, ABERNATHY called for the remainder of the SCLC members at which time he told the group that he did not want or anticipate any disturbances or violence and did not want any of his staff to go to Lincoln Park where the hippies and yippies were gathered. He advised that all SCLC personnel would meet at the YMCA at 8th and Wabash Avenue. It was decided by the head of SCLC security, who is known as approximately 11 A.M., a meeting was called which led to a demonstration in the Conrad Hilton. This demonstration was concluded at approximately 1 P.M. at which time they returned to the Roberts Motel and to other various housing

The national committee of inquiry has embarked upon a program of investigation of the political scene in order to inform the black people of this country of the political realities that we face. Our investigation has not only carried us into confrontations with the Presidential aspirants but it has carried us into a definitive investigation of the political machinery which selects those aspirants. Though we have given substantial attention to candidates on which subject you may expect our findings on Saturday, we were grievously appalled by the facts which relate to our political system.

We have found on the basis of the selection of delegates in both major parties that the political process is inherently undemocratic and unrepresentative. It is in fact a mockery of representative government. While millions of citizens watch the television screens to witness meaningless charades, no cameras pierce the smoke filled rooms where the character of an administration is actually determined. Not only does the existing process deny white American people a voice in its own government but it places a double burden upon the black citizens of this country because the political machinery like the society of which it is a part is infested with racism. Black people therefore are victimized twice by a corrupt process and also a racist one.
Within this context we have concluded that there must be a confrontation with the existing forces within the system which will give black Americans the political capacity to participate in the selection of political candidates instead of their mere election. We are in the process not only of evaluating candidates and issues in the interests of the black community but beyond that we intend to expose the structural defects of the political system.

Our committee is but a beginning in a long process to enable black America to exert its rightful influence in political life. Our voice will be militant and independent -- our composition is diversified and with these elements we will be able to speak honestly to every issue. In accordance with these investigations, a plenary session of the national committee will be meeting on Saturday in Chicago in an effort to implement a strategy and complete our findings.

I FOREIGN POLICY AND RELATED QUESTIONS

1. VIETNAM

HUGHEN

1. Consistent and enthusiastic defender of Vietnam war policy. Recently more "devish" statements balanced with "hawkish" statements, however.

2. Hesitantly halt in N.Vietnam only of "demonstration by enemy of "restraint and reasonable response" in avoiding their offensive military activities.

3. Opposes further widening of war and supports political negotiated settlement instead. Same policy during the last 3 years when he was also actively supporting Administration policy of consistent military escalation.

4. Strongly opposed to requiring NLF participation in S.Vietnamese government. This to be determined by negotiators, especially those representing current S.Vietnamese govern- ment.

5. Consistent supporter of "free elections" without much definition of these. Considers last fall's election or not S.Vietnamese government's reasonable achievement of democratic and free elections though many non-communist but pro-peace candidates and voters excluded.

MC CARTHY

1. Active critic of Vietnam war policy since _______ on all grounds: political, military, domestic, fiscal & moral.

2. Immediate & unconditional halt to bombing of N.Vietnam and search & destroy missions in S.Vietam & other major offensive strategies.

3. No further widening of war either geographically or by increasing forces.

4. Direct negotiations with all parties, including NLF, to create interim coalition government, also including NLF, to conduct elections. Immediate American withdrawal if present Saigon government doesn't agree to coalition.

5. Elections for permanent government after internationally-supervised cease-fire and withdrawal of all foreign troops.

6. Continuation of conflict if N.Vietnam does not agree to above-outlined "peaceful settlement" but not clear whether such a war would be limited by any of above deescalation steps.

MC GOVERN

1. Active critic of Vietnam war policy since _______ on all grounds: political, military, domestic, fiscal & moral.

3. Immediate unilateral and unconditional withdrawal of 300,000 American troops.

4. Shift support away from present Saigon government to those non-communist elements in S.Vietnam with popular support with goal of establishing new and broadly based S. Vietnamese government. Cense American opposition to eventual coalition government with NLF but allow such a new S.Vietnam government to negotiate this question.

5. Elections- no specific statement but implied same position as McCarthy.

COMMUNITY INTEGRATION OF SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

A confidential source advised on August 23, 1968 that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) conducted a National Committee of Inquiry at Chicago, Illinois at the Wabash Avenue Y.C.C.A., 3750 W. Wabash Avenue, August 24, 1968. The committee convened at 1 P.M. and lasted until approximately 4 P.M. There were approximately 100 members and 75 observers in attendance. RICHARD NATCHER, Mayor of Gary, Indiana, was Chairman of the meeting.
NATCHER stated the purpose of the meeting was to coordinate the political situation and its effect on the black people.
He further advised that nothing discussed at this meeting would be released to the press except when approved by the Executive Committee. NATCHER introduced the key speaker in the person of the Reverend JESSIE JACKSON, Director of Operation Breadbasket of Chicago. Other celebrities who appeared were HARRY BELAFONTE, Congressman JOHN CONyers of Detroit and CANDERALL ADDERLEY, a jazz musician.

Source advised that JESSIE JACKSON, in a prepared presentation, stated that the reason for boycotts of the A & P Stores is that these stores located in the ghetto areas sold inferior products and did not have any black personnel high up in the executive branches of the corporation. He gave a list of local Chicago black merchants where the black community should buy groceries, which list is attached hereto.

Source advised that the next person to speak to the group was CANNONBALL ADDERLEY, a renowned jazz musician. He spoke of black culture and how the white man has looked upon the black man as a comedian and was always kept around to keep him happy, to act as a clown and was one that the white man could always call on when he wanted to be entertained. ADDERLEY talked about teaching black culture in public schools and he gave a resume of background of the Negroes in a white society.

Source advised that JOHN CONVERSE, Congressman from Detroit, spoke about the reasons why the black community should not try to beat the present structure of the political system in America and how the black community could be part of it. He read to the group a press release which was prepared by the Executive Committee of the National Committee of Inquiry, a copy of which is attached.

Source advised that HARRY BELAFONTE, singer, spoke and gave the background of the National Committee of Inquiry. He stated that the organization is a part of the SCLC and was organized by the late MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. approximately five months before he was assassinated. The purpose of this committee was to look into the national political system and try to change it for the betterment of the black people and form a black political coalition. A program for the National Committee of Inquiry Committee to look into for the forthcoming year is attached hereto.

Source advised the only activities conducted Sunday, August 25, 1968 by members of SCLC, was a demonstration led by an unidentified member at an A & P Store at 35th near Indiana Avenue. Approximately 50 members of SCLC originally participated in this march, however, as the demonstration lasted over a two and a half hour period, approximately 150 people gathered. There were no incidents.

Source advised on Monday, August 25, 1968, that the Reverend RALPH D. ABERNATHY held a meeting at the Robert Motel, Rooms 223 and 224 which were adjoining rooms. This meeting started at approximately 8 P.M. and lasted to approximately 8:30 P.M. After this meeting was over, ABERNATHY called for the remainder of the SCLC members at which time he told the group that he did not want or anticipate any disturbances or violence and did not want any of his staff to go to Lincoln Park where the hippies and yippes were gathered. He advised that all SCLC personnel would meet at the YMCA at 8th and Wabash Avenue. It was decided by the head of SCLC security, who is known as

SCLC move into the YMCA for their own mutual protection in the event that there was any outbreak of violence.

Source advised that on August 27, 1968 at approximately 11 A.M., a meeting was called which led to a demonstration in the Conrad Hilton. This demonstration was concluded at approximately 1 P.M. at which time they
facilities provided.

The national committee of inquiry has embarked upon a program of investigation of the political scene in order to inform the black people of this country of the political realities that we face. Our investigation has not only carried us into confrontations with the Presidential aspirants but it has carried us into a definitive investigation of the political machinery which selects those aspirants. Though we have given substantial attention to candidates on which subject you may expect our findings on Saturday, we were grievously appalled by the facts which relate to our political system.

We have found on the basis of the selection of delegates in both major parties that the political process is inherently undemocratic and unrepresentative. It is in fact a mockery of representative government. While millions of citizens watch the television screens to witness meaningless charades, no cameras pierce the smoke filled rooms where the character of an administration is actually determined. Not only does the existing process deny white American people a voice in its own government but it places a double burden upon the black citizens of this country because the political machinery like the society of which it is a part is infested with racism. Black people therefore are victimized twice by a corrupt process and also a racist one.
Within this context we have concluded that there must be a confrontation with the existing forces within the system which will give black Americans the political capacity to participate in the selection of political candidates instead of their mere election.

We are in the process not only of evaluating candidates and issues in the interests of the black community but beyond that we intend to expose the structural defects of the political system.

Our committee is but a beginning in a long process to enable black America to exert its rightful influence in political life. Our voice will be militant and independent -- our composition is diversified and with these elements we will be able to speak honestly to every issue.

In accordance with these investigations, a plenary session of the national committee will be meeting on Saturday in Chicago in an effort to implement a strategy and complete our findings.

FOREIGN POLICY AND RELATED QUESTIONS

1. VIETNAM

Humphrey

1. Consistent and enthusiastic defender of Vietnam war policy. Recently more "dovish" statements balanced with "hawkish" statements, however.
2. Probing halt in N.Vietnam only if demonstration by enemy of "protest and reasonable response" in reducing their offensive military activities.
3. Opposes further widening of war and supports political negotiated settlement instead. Same policy during last 5 years when he was also actively supporting Administration policy of consistent military escalation.
4. Strongly opposed to requiring NLF participation in S.Vietnamese government. This to be determined by negotiators, especially those representing current S.Vietnamese government.
5. "Consistent supporter of "free elections" without such definition of term. Considers last fall's election or may S.Vietnamese government an achievable achievement of democratic and free elections though many non-communist but pro-peace candidates not voters excluded.

MC CATHY

1. Active critic of Vietnam war policy since _______ on all grounds: political, military, domestic, fiscal & moral.
2. Immediate & unconditional halt to bombing of N.Vietnam and search & destroy missions in S.Vietnam & other major offensive strategies.
3. No further widening of war either geographically or by increasing forces.
4. Direct negotiations with all parties, including NLF, to create interim coalition government, also including NLF, to conduct elections. Immediate American withdrawal if present Saigon government doesn't agree to coalition.
5. Elections for permanent government after internationally-supervised cease-fire and withdrawal of all foreign troops.
6. Continuation of conflict if N.Vietnam does not agree to above-outlined "peaceful settlement" but not clear whether such a war would be limited by any of above deescalation steps.

MC GOVERN

1. Active critic of Vietnam war policy since _______ on all grounds: political, military, domestic, fiscal & moral.
3. Immediate unilateral and unconditional withdrawal of 300,000 American troops.
4. Shift support away from present Saigon government to those non-communist elements in S.Vietnam with popular support with goal of establishing new and broadly based S. Vietnamese government. Cease American opposition to eventual coalition government with NLF but allow such a new S.Vietnamese government to negotiate this question.
5. Elections- no specific statement but implied same position as McCarthy.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL NATIONAL CONVENTION
OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
CONFERENCE, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE,
AUGUST 14-17, 1968

On August 19, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that the Eleventh National Convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was held at Memphis, Tennessee from August 14 - 17, 1968.

Registration of delegates and staff members was held at the C.M.E. Church, 521 Parkway Boulevard, Memphis, Tennessee on Wednesday, August 14, 1968. On that evening an art and cultural night was held at the Paradise Inn, 645 East Georgia, Memphis, Tennessee. Source advised that he understood there was some possibility of trouble arising between members of a militant teenage group from Chicago known as the "Chicago Rangers" and a militant teenage Negro group known as "Invaders." At this time, registering delegates were told in the event that they were jailed by the police during the period of the convention, that arrangements had been made for their release.
ELEVENTH ANNUAL NATIONAL CONVENTION
OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
CONFERENCE, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE,
AUGUST 14-17, 1968

Source stated that both the "Chicago Rangers" and "Invaders" had participated in the Poor People's Campaign in Washington, DC and there was supposed to be friction between the two groups, however, no trouble materialized during the course of the convention. The leader of the "Chicago Rangers", known as Baracuda, appeared to be in charge of security, at least over the young Negroes, acting as a security force.
The security force was made up of the "Invaders" from Memphis, whose leader was known as "Sweet Daddy Wine". Source stated that he noted that during the period of the convention, Baracuda gave orders and the "Invaders" obeyed them without any question and no friction seemed to exist.

Source stated that Fred Bennett on the staff of the SCLC from Atlanta, Georgia, heads the security forces of SCLC and is designated by them as a four star general. Baracuda is a two star general.

Source advised that the Reverend Virgil A. Wood, attached to the staff of SCLC from Boston, Massachusetts, was present at the convention. Members of the board of SCLC were identified by the green badge issued to them. Reverend Wood however did not wear the green badge, he did not sit on the platform with other board members during Reverend Abernathy's address to the convention, and he did not attend the board members party. He appeared to take no active part in the convention, but to be there only as an observer. He stayed at the Claridge Hotel, which was convention headquarters.

On August 15, 1968, Reverend Abernathy gave his report to the convention. He claimed that SCLC had been the first group to push for economic development of the Negro through SCLC's "Operation Breadbasket". He deplored the fact that many Southern Negroes were moving to the North and tried to discourage such movement, asking the audience why they should move from Eastman's Plantation to Daley's Plantation, referring to Senator Eastman and Mayor Daley of Chicago.
Reverend Abernathy stated that SCLC will insist that business contribute more money back into the black community and also that rotten foods be taken off the shelves in the stores.
ELEVENTH ANNUAL NATIONAL CONVENTION
OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
CONFERENCE, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE,
AUGUST 14-17, 1968

He stated that "Operation Breadbasket" would be established in thirty cities. He condemned the Atlantic & Pacific (A&P) chain of grocery stores. He promised that SCLC would close down the A&P chain all over the country and described them as the chain selling the worst quality foods. Reverend Abernathy was not specific in how he proposed to attack the A&P stores other than stating that it would be in a non-violent way and that the way to do it was to "get them in the pocketbook where it hurts the most."

Source advised that at least ninety percent of the people attending the convention were under twenty-five years of age and were rather enthusiastic in receiving Reverend Abernathy's talk. Reverend Abernathy defined Black Power as the use of the ballot box. He stressed that the power of Negro was in the ballot box. Reverend Abernathy claimed that the Poor People's Campaign was a success, first because it made America conscious of the existence of poverty and secondly, because Congress is now doing some of the things they said it could not do. Reverend Abernathy stated that SCLC would call for a National South Conference, but he made no mention when it would be called, or where it would be held.

The source stated that the various panels held during the day were uninteresting and for the most part consisted of speakers repeating the same thing over and over again. On that evening the annual Freedom Banquet was held at the Paradise Inn. The source stated that this was very poorly organized and the food was poor and many people were not served food. They were told that the money they paid for their dinner, they should consider a donation to SCLC and that it was for a good cause. Nothing new or unusual was said in speeches and consisted for the most part in laments over the death of Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. Source stated that the mood of the people appeared to be King was now dead and they should go on from there, and less should be said about him. Mrs. King spoke in generalities, without saying anything.
OF THE SOUTHER CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE,
AUGUST 14-17, 1968

On Friday, August 16, 1968, the convention came to a close without any noteworthy activity. It was announced that there would be a staff meeting held on Saturday, August 17, 1968, and that the 1969 SCLC convention would be held in New Orleans and possibly in Boston, Massachusetts in 1970.

On Saturday morning, the staff meeting which was supposed to start at 10:00 a.m. never began and the Reverend Abernathy spent the time conversing with almost all of the individual members of the staff on a more or less personal bases. By 1:00 p.m., the meeting was definitely over.
