5383 WOSTIM - WHITE HOUSE LITIGATION - WILSON EPCJ

From: Neille Russell
To: bkavan,dlipp
Date: 5/15/97 7:59am
Subject: Wilson Epps

I spoke with Ty this morning, and he advises that the schedule for getting the brief over to him that we discussed last night is accurate. Please note that the doors are locked promptly at 5:00 there, so we would either have to get the brief over there by then, or slip it through the door. (Given the location of the printing company, it would probably be best to get it there before 5:00.)

Recap:

- (1) Brief must be over there by 5:00 on 5/27
- (2) They will have the proofs here by Noon on 5/28
- (3) We must get it back to them with any changes before COB on 5/28
- (4) Brett is to go over to WE on the early morning of 5/29 to give the brief a final look-see (take Certificate of Service and any labels, if we want WE to send it out to the opposing attorneys)

Decision still needs to be made about how we want the brief filed with the Supreme Court; options are (1) WE to file; or (2) OIC to file.

BEfore we get to step (4) above, we should have made that decision.

Subject: Tucker cert petition

We have to file a brief in opposition to the certiorari petitions in U.S. v. Tucker, Marks, and Haley. It is due on July 26. The brief needs to be prepared by a professional printer. Ken said he would like to use Wilson Epps, and he mentioned someone there named Ray with whom he was familiar when Ken was at the SG's office.

Would you please call Wilson Epps and find out the details about what they need from us in order to print the brief, including:

In what form do they want the brief (on disk, hard copy, etc.)?
How much lead time do they need?
What is the process? (Drafts, corrections by us, turnaround time, etc.)
What else do we need to know?

Thanks.

I have spoken with Ty of Wilson Epes Printing Company, 707 6th Street, Northwest (telephone: 789-0096). Ty advised that Ray retired, but he knows Judge Starr from the Court of Appeals and SG days.

Answers to your questions are as follows:

Must submit a double-spaced typewritten manuscript (including Cover Page, Table of Contents, Table of Authorities, and Appendix [if necessary]). Footnotes and indents must be single-spaced. Must be 10 characters per inch. For every 5 pages of typed manuscript (double-spaced) there will be 4 printed pages. Maximum allowable printed pages for brief is 30 (does not include the table of contents, table of authorities, or appendix).

It is best to provide the printer with the final version of your brief. The reason being that once the brief has been put into print, any alteration we make to the text would be at a cost of $2.45 per line.

Turn around time on getting the brief printed and in final:

If we give to Epes on the 24th during the day, we will get it back no later than Noon on the 25th. Then we must return the printed copy to them with our corrections on the 25th before close of business. On the morning of the 26th, the attorney in charge of the project would have to go over to Epes to look over the brief one more time and sign off on the final version so that it may be printed. Epes would run off the copies in the next three to four hours. (Epes can file the brief with the Supreme Court, and if we provide labels for copies to be sent to the counsels of record, Epes will mail them for us.) Alternatively, Epes will either have the brief hand-delivered to us or call us to come and pick the copies up. (It's our choice, but we must let them know when we make initial arrangements.) I wouldn't cut it that close, if I were you.

Number of copies needed:

40 for the Supreme Court
3 copies each for each counsel of record
+ how ever many copies we want

Pricing for the Brief

Let us say the brief is 36 pages, including table of contents, table of authorities,

For the first 50 copies, it would be:

$60 for the cover page
$39.50 per page for the index ~~xxx~~
$3 .00 per page for the text
$1.75 per line for each footnote.

Total cost would run approximately $1,700.

For each copy over the 50, it would run 10 cents per page, plus 60 cents for each cover. So each 36-page additional brief would cost $4.20 each. (Must let Epes know how many we want at the outset.)

We may either pay through a Purchase Order or they will bill us.

Thank you. I will probably get the substance of the document in final form and turn it over to you to make sure the format is right before it goes to the printer.
